Indigestion 25 Yrs. — Wants to Fight
"I had indigestion for 25 years. Nothing helped me like Adlerika did. I feel so good now that I think I could lick Dempsey."—John McGuire.
The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, saline, etc. (known as Adlerika), has a most surprising DOUBLE action. First, it acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel (most medicines act on lower bowel only) and removes foul matter that often poisons the system for months. Second, Adlerika cleans all GAS and sourness from stomach and bowels, bringing INSTANT relief from stomach troubles. And in addition, Adlerika removes metabolic poisons which cause neuritis, rheumatism, etc.

Indigestion 25 Yrs. — Wants to Fight
Dr. H. L. Shoup, New York, writes: "Adlerika, in addition to its intestinal cleansing, checks the growth of intestinal bacteria and bacilli."
Dr. J. Weaver: "In my 50 years' practice I have found nothing to excel Adlerika."
J. E. Puckett: "After using Adlerika, I feel better than for 20 years. Awful impurities were eliminated."
It will astonish you the great amounts of poisonous matter Adlerika brings out—matter you would believe was in your system. In chronic constipation, gas bloating, sour stomach and sick headache, just ONE spoonful Adlerika brings wonderful relief. At leading druggists. Sold in Victoria by David Spencer Limited and other druggists.

GREEK ART IS CENTURIES OLD

Prehistoric Art, Not First Class, Overwhelmed By Dorian Invasion

Prehistoric Greek art, which goes back into the dimness of the third and second millennia B.C., was over-ridden and finally ceased in the Dark Ages when the Dorian invasion of the eleventh and eighth centuries swamped the nation's early culture. It sprang up and flourished again in the seventh century B.C. according to Professor O. J. Todd of the University of British Columbia, who addressed the Island Arts and Crafts Society here last night in their clubrooms in the Union Bank Building.

"Did this art arise under the influence of Egyptian artists? Certain resemblances between Egyptian sculpture and that of the earliest Greeks have led some scholars to believe in this relation. But I see it more than coincidence of a very likely kind," the speaker said.

At any rate, Greek sculpture then deviated from the beginning in several ways. In depicting human beings it sought for the ideal rather than for realistic portraiture. In dealing with the gods it depicted them as types, instead of differentiating by the addition of animal heads. It had little interest in colossal human figures. It portrayed undraped forms, and it rapidly developed freedom of pose.

"There were in the beginning two great divisions, Eastern (or Ionic) and Western. The Ionic style was graceful, attention to details, but not vigorous. The Western was virile but inclined to heaviness. The former presented draped figures; the latter chiefly undraped athletic types. Later both were fused to advantage, in Athens and elsewhere," he said.

"Greek sculpture is usually divided into five periods. The archaic period (from the seventh century B.C. to about 480 B.C.) was an age of conventions and crudeness, but there was increasing mastery of material and of form. The second period is that of transition, about thirty years following 480 B.C. This marks the final elimination of cramping conventions, and a firm grasp on technique. The great period (from about 480 B.C. to about 320 B.C.) shows in its first part the greatest heights of Greek sculpture, marked by dignity, mobility, grace and power; in its second part, some loss of strength, but increasing grace and refinement," he declared.

The Hellenistic period (320-100 B.C.) and the Greco-Roman (100 B.C. on for three centuries) were marked by the decadence of the Greek spirit, but the lecturer instead going back over the preceding periods, and showing briefly how the artists had met the varied demands of groups of statues, bas-relief carving as decorations for temples.

I.O.D.E. SPENT $3,000 IN B.C. TO MAKE GOOD CANADIANS

The report continued in detail: In Burnaby Municipal Chapter, the William Telford Chapter arranged a lecture on "The Diamond Jubilee of Confederation" and took a practical interest in the first part of the year in the school of its adoption. Col. Hart McHugh Chapter made a most generous contribution of calendars to the schools of public buildings, a $10 library was presented to one school and "Echoes" and "My Magazine" subscribed for other schools. Fifteen dollars was contributed to Girl Guide company.

Col. Burnaby Chapter presented a $21 library to a school in commemoration of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation; renewed subscription to "Echoes" and "My Magazine"; a boy was financially assisted in his high school course, and a girl in the Normal School. A flag was presented to a Girl Guide company.

CHILLIWACK MUNICIPAL
The Seaford Chapter presented a set of Dent's History Readers and framed picture of "Fathers of Confederation" to each of two rural schools. The Henry Tizon Chapter gave a prize of $10 to pupil taking highest marks in entrance examination, the competition being open to five local schools. The H.M.S. Lion Chapter gave a $50 scholarship to the head pupil in matriculation examination; renewed subscription to "Echoes" and "My Magazine"; and presented framed copies of "Fathers of Confederation" to four schools. The Keith McLeod Chapter placed copies of the same picture in two schools. Calendars were generously distributed.

PRINCE RUPERT MUNICIPAL
Adair Caron Chapter gave two prizes, value $5.75, purchased locally. Queen Mary Chapter presented pictures, value $6.25, and prize books, value $5. Hill Sixty Chapter subscribed for two magazines, "Willson's Monthly" and "World Wide."

VANCOUVER MUNICIPAL
The chapters under Vancouver Municipal have done remarkably outstanding work in the rural schools, no less than twenty receiving presentations.

Nelson's Canadian historical plaques have been purchased by the following chapters: Connaught Chapter, presented to a school at Port Eslington; others will be given to another school. Rainbow Chapter presented in part, Victoria Chapter presented two in each school in North Vancouver.

BOOKS AND LIBRARIES
The following chapters have presented sets of Dent's Canadian histories to schools: Lady, French, Admiral Jellicoe, Lord Bessborough (three sets), Marjorie Pichall (two sets). The Dufferin Chapter sends English periodicals to the County Line School. Prize books were presented by Sir Charles Tupper Chapter to the Girl Guides' library; and the Pauline Johnson Chapter to the Greenwood School. The Gordon Chapter presented three $25 libraries and three $100 libraries to Chu Chu, Deckers Lake and Snowshoe schools. Pauline Johnson Chapter gave a $15 library and Bunkin Chapter a $10 library to rural schools. The Canadian Scottish Chapter sent $15 to a school at Chase. The Triple Enterprise augmented a library by additional books. The Victoria Chapter, Gordon Chapter and Captain Oates Chapter held book teas, the former collecting thirty-one volumes and the latter 101.

SECONDARY EDUCATION
The Canadian Scottish Chapter contributed $10 a month towards the education of two daughters of a deceased soldier; the Vancouver Chapter gave $50 to one student and $15 to a second; the Condon Chapter gave $5, the Seaford $3 and Lady French $2.50 towards this fund.

Chapter leaders paying $50 to a teacher of physical culture at Grenfell School contributed $5 to a pupil attending High School; Captain Oates Chapter gave $50 to a pupil in High School. A member of this chapter gave music lessons to a crippled child, daughter of a war widow. Mrs. George B. McLeod has again made a gift of $25 as a memorial to her husband, to provide prizes for essay competition.

Sir A. Pearson Chapter is interested in the pupils at the Blind School. The Duncan Lawson Chapter gave $25 to School Cadet Corps. This chapter decorated a public stand and the High School float for the Diamond Jubilee celebration. The Silver Diamond Jubilee medals presented.

VICTORIA'S WORK
The chapters under this municipal have as usual given very generously to secondary education, a total of $579 being contributed to the Victoria schools. The details of all the chapters' contributions being given at the recent annual meeting of the chapters in Victoria.

ISOLATED PRIMARY REPORTS
The Alexander MacKenzie Chapter at Bella Coola reported that a set of Dent's Canadian histories and eight prize books presented, value $47; subscription to "Pictorial Education" for the school, and calendars given not only to local but to schools of the Bella Coola Valley.

The regent of the Allies Chapter, Sidney, attended the Diamond Jubilee celebration at the local schools and presented the Jubilee Confederation medals. The last set of British Columbia's War Memorial pictures were presented to Saanich schools. This chapter's newspaper is sent to three schools. A prize essay competition was arranged for the schools of Saanich, and the prize winners received a book and picture as trophies.

RURAL WORK SPLENDID
The Arthur Chapman Chapter has been most generous to the schools, presenting a set of Dent's histories to each of five schools and framed pictures, value $10, to each of three schools. This chapter had the honor of being the first to present a full set of Nelson's Canadian History pictures to a school. The first prize for the best presentation of history in the upper grades and painting of Union Jack in juniors. Calendars were given to schools.

Isolation Chapter, Nanaimo, gave to one of the schools a $10 library and Dent's history to another. Prize books were presented to the head girl and boy in the Christmas examinations. "Canadian Pioneer" was presented to the school library and "Echoes" subscribed for Nanaimo library reading room. Two dozen calendars distributed.

British magazines and periodicals are sent by Cowichan Chapter to the local schools. An essay competition on "Edith Cavell" was arranged. Inspiring Empire Day was celebrated by the chapter, all schools taking part. Delta Chapter, Delta, again shows a year of generous and inspiring activity. Three sets of Dent's histories, and $25 were presented to the schools. A medal was given to head student in Grade XI.

INSPECTOR'S TRIBUTE
Through the generosity of a member three schools received gifts of historical reference books and several volumes of standard authors. Eight rural schools (large percentage foreign parentage) received British periodicals. Twenty-four schools received calendars. At the presentation of the bronze medal for Dominion Confederation essay contest, the Provincial Inspector paid splendid tribute to the educational work of this chapter. To mark the Diamond Jubilee, the regent and members visited ten rural schools, presenting each with a copy of "More Famous Canadian Stories." One inaccessible school was visited by letter.

During the round of visits the educational secretary addressed in all 800 children. Three naval pictures were purchased from the provincial chapter to be presented later.

The Annieville School, through their teacher, sent a request for a set of Dent's histories, which was most generously granted.

Ladymith Chapter celebrated the Jubilee year by a gift of seven books to the High School and four to a public school, and presented a set of essays on Confederation. The National Geographic Magazine is sent to the High School.

MOUNT FERNIE CHAPTER
Mount Fernie Chapter arranged for two outstanding entertainments, a lecture by Charles F. D. Roberts on "Canadian Literature," and also for a performance by the Players' Club of the University of British Columbia. Prizes were presented for Canadian history and to the home nursing class. Pictures of Their Majesties The King and Queen were presented to the Fernie Public Hall.

The educational secretary gave a book tea for the local branch of the Canadian Legion, when 247 books were collected and $45 in cash.

Bentley Chapter placed calendars in schools and public buildings, presented four prizes and gave to the library "Canadian Folk Songs" and "Canadian Historical and Natural History Society's first report. South Sea Cadets and Girl Guides were assisted.

Illustrated London News sent to Anyox Public School and $50 given for prizes in high and public schools. Night classes are provided for the foreign-born in the camps by the Granby company and the Anyox Community League for the study of English.

Commission Suit Against Parfitt Dropped By Christy

The suit of $21,000 brought by R. G. Christy & Company against James Parfitt for alleged commission in connection with the sale of the Normandie Apartments, has been discontinued by Mr. Christy, it was announced today.

The suit had proceeded after the examination for discovery stage. W. P. Marchant, of Tait and Marchant, attorneys for the defendants, examined John E. Hammett, of the real estate department of the Christy firm, and H. H. Shandley, of Elliott, Maclean and Shandley, acting for the Christy firm, took Mr. Parfitt's evidence. After this the plaintiffs decided to discontinue.

The costs of the action will be payable by the plaintiff, it was announced.

Brentwood
Brentwood, April 8—Mrs. Williams of Vancouver is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Sidwell, Stelly Cross Road.

Mrs. A. Fitch of Victoria was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. O. Wallace, during the week.

Mrs. W. Dignan and small daughter of Copper Mountain arrived on Tuesday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Verrier.

Friends of Mr. E. Rochon will regret to know that he had the misfortune to fall and break his leg at Ladysmith hospital in Prince George, where he is receiving treatment.

The ladies' guild of St. Stephen's and St. Mary is holding its annual dance on Friday, April 27, in the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton. Potts four-piece orchestra has been engaged for the dancing.

The annual card party and social given by the Catholic ladies of South Saanich continues to grow in popularity. The affair given in the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton, on Tuesday evening, was attended by nearly 500 people, a large contingent coming from the city. Eighty tables of 500 players and several tables of 100 players were present. Very handsome prizes, and many others came in later to enjoy the dance which followed after supper.

The hall was prettily decorated with colored streamers and bunting. A most efficient master of ceremonies, the games being carried through in good order. The winners of the prizes were: First, Miss J. Sherman; second, W. D. Mitchell; third, R. A. Hunter; fourth, Mrs. J. H. Hunter; fifth, Mrs. J. H. Hunter; sixth, Mrs. J. H. Hunter; seventh, Mrs. J. H. Hunter; eighth, Mrs. J. H. Hunter; ninth, Mrs. J. H. Hunter; tenth, Mrs. J. H. Hunter.

The bridge prizes were won by Miss E. Cumming and Miss J. Dixon. Special prizes for lucky numbers and chairs were won by Mrs. H. J. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Baker.

Supper was served on the small tables and a short programme arranged by Hilary Rochon was very much enjoyed. Mr. T. O'Connell gave two songs and encores and "Buster" Brown in comic songs and stories was so popular that he had to respond to several encores. Miss Adeline Crossley delighted the audience with a thrilling trade, and an amusing tenor solo. The Columbia orchestra gave several selections and also played excellent music for the dancing, which continued until 1:30 o'clock.

Numerous tombolas were drawn for, and the cushion was won by Mrs. J. J. Freeland. Indian basket by Miss R. Hagan. An ice cream stall in charge of Mrs. A. Lacoursiere and Miss R. Hagan did a thriving trade, and an amusement stall conducted by Adolphe Rochon proved very popular. Miss Nellie Hagan was general convener, and with Mrs. Lacoursiere, Mrs. Butler, Miss R. Hagan and Rev. Father Sweeney, the service was given for the splendid success of the affair.

DOWELL BROS. LTD. IN RITHEB BUILDING

MANY QUESTIONS AND REPLIES ARE READ AT TRIAL

Placing of Examination For Discovery in Record Occupies Hours of Hearing

Former Secretary of Lieut. Gen. Sir Richard Turner Is Witness

Cobourg, Ont., April 19—The greater part of yesterday afternoon's session of the hearing of General Sir Arthur Currie's suit in the Ontario Supreme Court here was employed in reading into the record the evidence given at the examination for discovery held recently.

In the suit, Sir Arthur, who commanded the Canadian army in France in the World War, asks for $50,000 damages for alleged libel from W. T. R. Preston and F. W. Walker, publisher of the Port Hope Guide.

NOVEMBER 5 MESSAGE
Prior to the reading of the testimony given by Sir Arthur at the examination for discovery, Major Nickle of Kingston, Ont., who was private secretary to Lieut.-General Sir Richard Turner, stationed in London, said that on November 5, 1918, he had received a telephone message from the British headquarters in France, which was expected an armistice would be signed at any moment and instructing his chief to arrange for discontinuance of troops and supplies going to France.

Reference to Col. A. F. Duguid, director of the historical section of the General Staff in Ottawa, brought the information that no record of such a message existed.

Frank Regan, defence counsel—Would you conclude that Sir Arthur Currie would have the same information? The witness presumed so.

Mr. Regan—You have no animosity toward Sir Arthur Currie? Witness—Not at all, except that he might have promoted me, but didn't.

This was received with laughter.

DISCUSSION OF LOSSES
Then Mr. Regan began to discuss the matter of a cable. There had been a dispute between Maj. General C. C. Newburn, Minister of Militia at Ottawa, and Sir Edward Kemp, Overseas Minister, regarding the losses at Mons, 230 p.m. on Wednesday afternoon, when he was sitting in court, if he had that cable.

Colonel Duguid replied that it might or might not be in Ottawa.

Mr. Regan asked Colonel Duguid if the cable should be obtained, sent to the Government of Canada had asked for an investigation.

CRITICISM REPORTED
The witness replied that a cable had been received in London which stated there was considerable criticism in Canada with regard to casualties sustained on the last day of the war and that an inquiry was wanted.

Mr. Regan asked Colonel Duguid if the cable should be obtained, sent to the Government of Canada had asked for an investigation.

TAKING OF MONS
The capture of Mons by the 7th Brigade was mentioned in the copy of a message to Corps Headquarters and this showed the city had been taken between 11 p.m. and 4:30 a.m. of the night and morning of November 10 and 11. This message showed the Princess Patricia's Light Infantry, 4th Battalion, had met with "stubborn resistance" in the Mons operations, which had resulted in the capture of high ground northeast of Mons, "according to orders."

The judge ruled out of order twenty-four consecutive questions.

STATEMENTS BY GENERAL
Further reading established that Sir Arthur Currie thought his first knowledge of the crossing of the Allied line by the German envoys seeking an armistice was on November 11, 1918, and that he was not in the line of the front.

NEWS OF ARMISTICE
He was cross-examined by W. N. Tilley, K.C., counsel for the plaintiff. Mr. Tilley—How long would it take to discontinue the armistice information through the Canadian army? Witness—I could not say.

Mr. Tilley—How long would it take when the armistice was signed to reach all necessary parties in the Canadian army? Witness—About three hours.

to speak, irrespective of what their comrades were doing? Witness—No.

Mr. Tilley—Then was it not desirable to fix a time, say 11 o'clock, when all could cease? The witness said it was. He admitted the troops should have continued with the operations they had begun until the stated hour when everybody could stop.

Re-examined by Mr. Regan, as to whether the Third Division was justified in continuing operations on November 11, although the Second Division had not received the armistice notice, the witness said any hostile action was unjustified.

The witness wanted to explain his position, but the judge declared he had answered the question.

BODIES IN STREETS
Joseph Golding of Port Hope, the first witness, testified he had seen 6000 overseas in October, 1915. He was in the 21st Battalion, Fourth Brigade. On the night of November 10 he was about a mile from Mons. The battalion had advanced about 1,400 yards on November 10. He had heard of a man named Golding, who was killed that day. On the night of November 10 the 21st Battalion were the nearest troops to Mons. The 19th and 20th Battalions went through them later in the morning. He had gone into Mons. He had seen dead Canadians in the streets leading into the city. He would judge these bodies had been lying there that night. There were between a half dozen and a dozen. He thought the men might have been killed some time after midnight.

EXPRESSION OF OPINION
Mr. Regan—If Sir Arthur Currie makes the statement that the attack on Mons was justified—The judge objected. Mr. Regan had had more than the statutory number of witnesses' expression of opinion, said the judge.

At this juncture Mr. Preston rose to say Mr. Regan was not representing him in the matter.

The judge—Mr. Regan does not purport to represent you.

QUESTION OF DISCRETION
Examination of the witness continued. He did not know anything about the discretion of the general commanding the corps.

Some questions were put by Mr. Regan. Mr. Regan said he thought "he might as well throw away the examination for discovery if he was not allowed to ask questions to contradict Sir Arthur Currie."

I.O.D.E. UNIT TO GIVE BRIDGE TEA
The members of the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I.O.D.E., will hold a bridge tea at the new Beach Hotel at 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday afternoon, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the purchase of a new radio set for the T.B. Ward of the Jubilee Hospital. The instrument will be the latest design and will prove a great boon to the patients.

Recently the chapter has gone to considerable expense in improving the sun-room which it built at the hospital. This, of course, is under the special care of the chapter, which arranges many attractive things to lighten the lot of the patients, the serving of special teas on holidays, for example, the serving of ice cream on Thursdays on so on.

Members of the chapter have been delighted to learn that the second little girl to occupy the Florence Nightingale cot at the hospital is reported to be making satisfactory progress. The first occupant of the cot was discharged from the hospital as completely cured.

For its many splendid endeavors the chapter needs funds, and additional guests for tea at the function on April 25 will be gladly welcomed. The convalescent will be the latest design and will prove a great boon to the patients.

Girls Present Three-act Play
A three-act play entitled "The Elopement of Ellen" was given under the auspices of the evening branch of St. John's W.A. on Tuesday, April 17, in St. John's hall.

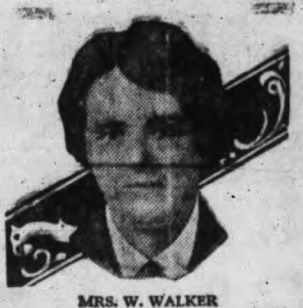

All parts were very well played, the Rev. John Hume, taken by Mr. Harry Warburton, being extremely humorous. The characters were as follows: Richard Ford, a dandy young husband, Miss Gladys Barlow; Molly, his wife (a bride of two months), Miss Wendy Mowbray. The funds from this are to be used by the evening branch of St. John's W.A. for hospital and other useful work undertaken by this group of girls.

The girls wish to express their gratitude to all those who helped to make the evening such a success, and especially to Mr. Harry Warburton, Mr. Limited for furniture loaned, and to Messrs. Hudson's Bay Company for hangings.

LEUNG CHONG IS SENTENCED TO BE HANGED

Chinese Convicted of Killing Vancouver Constable; June 22 Execution Date

Vancouver, April 19.—Found guilty here late yesterday afternoon by an assize court jury of the murder of Police Constable Ernest Sargent of the Vancouver police force, who was shot down November 5 last, Leung Chong, Chinese, was sentenced by Mr. Justice Morrison to be hanged Friday, June 22 next. The jury, composed of eleven men and one woman, deliberated twenty minutes.

Constable Sargent was shot early in the morning of November 5 while on duty in the vicinity of Eleventh Avenue and Alder Street. He accosted the Chinese, who immediately opened fire, wounding him in the abdomen. The officer, although mortally wounded, gave chase after his assailant, and returned the fire, but the man escaped. Sargent died November 10. The accused was arrested in Victoria December 23.

A few hours before the constable died he identified a photograph of Leung Chong as that of the man who had shot him.

Algoma Invites W. Hohenzollern

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., April 19.—William Hohenzollern, erstwhile Emperor of Germany, now a resident of Doorn, Holland, is going to receive an invitation to visit Algoma and taste of its delights from the tourist circle. J. J. Noble, secretary of the Board of Trade, had occasion yesterday to send some of the board's literature to F. S. Bowman at Doorn, and it occurred to him to find out just how the former Kaiser would treat a similar invitation to visit Algoma.

SENDER OF NOV. 11 MESSAGE IS CALLED AS WITNESS AT CURRIE HEARING IN ONTARIO

amining the documents with the witness announced the colonel had only a part of the order and this was no good to the defence. Mr. Regan asked for the original document from which a photograph of the message was taken. Col. Duguid was asked if he had a record of a message sent out by the Canadian Corps before 6.45 a.m. on November 11. Had he the original order?

The witness said he had not. This document, he said, might have been destroyed in the field. This message was shown in the corps file, but the time was not entered.

CORPS ORDERS

W. T. R. Preston, one of the defendants, questioned the witness on the procedure in issuing corps orders, bringing out the information that while one original was issued, there might be a dozen copies received by the various units to which it was addressed, and these in turn became original.

W. N. Tilley, K.C., for the plaintiff, questioned the witness as to whether he knew of a Mr. Magee in the service in November, 1918.

Witness—He was General Staff Officer, Canadian Corps.

DID NOT KNOW CALDOW

The witness said he had no knowledge of any person named Caldow. He had no messages signed by Caldow. Mr. Tilley—Were there any messages sent by the Canadian Corps as early as 6.05 a.m. November 11?

Witness—No.

Mr. Tilley—Is the earliest message you see a trace of 6.40 a.m.?

Witness—Yes.

TEXT OF MESSAGE

The armistice message of the First Army to the Canadian Corps was as follows:

"To Canadian Corps: 'G. 232-11th—From first army—time: 07.00 'hostilities will cease at 11.00 November 11.' Troops will stand fast on line reached at that hour, which will be reported to army headquarters. Defensive precautions will be maintained. There will be no intercourse of any description with the enemy. Further instructions will follow. Addressed: Seventh, Eighth, Twentieth Canadian Corps and First Brigade R.A.F. Repeated all concerned."

DISTRIBUTION OF MESSAGE

The distribution of the priority message to subordinate formations was then taken up. Counsel sought to show the copy of the armistice message in the original official records was not a correct representation of the original message.

E. Warburton, of Kingston, Ontario, took the stand, and was asked if he had given the original document of the armistice message.

He said he had, adding he had had the document photographed and reproduced in The Toronto Star. The man who had this document was still in the permanent force of Canada. He had his name in confidence and it might get him into trouble under the Military Secrets Act to divulge it.

The judge said there was no semblance of proof that what was in the hand of the witness was an authentic copy of an original document.

Mr. Regan—Then what was the name of the man? We have got to bring him here.

NO PROTECTION

Witness—If he could have the protection of this court—

The judge—I can't protect him.

Mr. Regan—How are we to get the document?

The judge—I don't know.

Mr. Regan pressed the necessity of securing the document, for the original showed it was signed at 6.05 a.m., while the plaintiff had declared he did not get the message until 6.45 a.m., a difference of forty minutes.

Mr. Regan told Warburton to inform his friend in Kingston that he had nothing to fear, for he had as much right to the document as thousands of other soldiers throughout the country.

The witness thought he might be able to get the documents.

OF VITAL INTEREST

Mr. Preston, addressed the judge and declared that it was of vital interest to the trial. If the document was genuine, it was of greatest importance, and if it was spurious, its spuriousness could be established. He suggested it was prima facie evidence of the document being bona fide that the man should be so anxious about his military position, and that he was being in possession of the document. It was a public document and of the utmost importance to the country.

SAYS TIME WASTED

Mr. Tilley protested against a waste of time. He had made an inquiry and within two minutes had found out that Mr. Caldow, who had signed the message, was in Toronto and was available. Mr. Tilley could not give Mr. Regan the name of the man who had signed the second message.

Mr. Preston asked if the judge could not give Colonel R. F. Ordie, judge advocate-general, authority to get the protection of the Minister of National Defence on behalf of the man who was in possession of the original document.

Mr. Tilley again protested that the trial was already running into tremendous expense which someone would have to pay.

The judge remarked that the matter was getting far away from the point at issue.

He declined to authorize Colonel Ordie to approach the Minister for protection for the permanent force member.

SAW BODIES

Robert Hill of Port Hope, formerly of the Second Machine Gun Battalion, testified that about 7.30 a.m. on November 11, his unit entered the outskirts of Mons, flanking the city on the left. The unit met no opposition. He saw some dead Canadian soldiers—about two or three—lying between the houses. They seemed to have been sniped. There may have been more, but he did not recollect seeing them. He was on the outskirts of the city he saw them.

He heard at 8 o'clock that morning that the armistice was going to be signed, when he was on the other side of Mons. He had heard rumors of it before.

Asked with regard to his feelings, the witness asked Mr. Regan to appreciate what he would have felt if he had been fighting for two or three years and knew the war was over. With respect to his feelings at continuing the fight after hearing the armistice was signed, the witness told counsel to figure these things out for himself. He did not want to carry out any more fighting. As to his feelings when marching in the direction of the enemy, he said when a man had been in the war several years he did not have any feeling.

Mr. Tilley cross-examined briefly.

ADDRESS GIVEN

Following this counsel for the plaintiff gave Mr. Regan the address of Mr. Caldow in Toronto.

The court then resumed reading of the examination for discovery.

ADVANCE ORDERS

These were of a military character and showed the nature of the orders issued to the Canadian Corps commander by the general officer commanding the First Army. These orders showed instructions were issued from day to day to continue the advance toward a certain line, the Canadian Corps being ordered to the high ground east and northeast of Mons, sending mounted troops and advance guard forward to keep in touch with the enemy south of the Canal du Centre.

The question of casualties from day to day were recorded and the general movement of the troops reviewed.

The relevancy or otherwise of many of the questions recorded in this examination was the subject of considerable discussion. The judge ruled out a number of these questions. For the most part they dealt with engagements other than Mons.

WASTE OF LIFE

The whole interchange arose out of the admission of Sir Arthur Currie to the examination that there had been an "enormous waste of human life during the war."

Mr. Tilley declared Sir Arthur admitted the truth, the sentence in the newspaper article complained of which was that there had been an enormous waste of life that could have been avoided.

Mr. Regan contested the request of Mr. Tilley seeking exclusion at this stage of a large number of battles. He had hoped to prove, he said, that the city of Valenciennes had been taken without the loss of a single life and he wanted to show that if the same tactics had been ordered by Sir Arthur Currie at Mons as were ordered at Valenciennes, then Mons also could have been taken without loss.

The orders which gave rise to the operations between Valenciennes and Mons were read from the report and the questions put to Sir Arthur Currie by Mr. Regan quoted.

3,000 QUESTIONS

Cobourg, Ont., April 19.—Nearly 3,000 questions and answers were asked and given during the examination for discovery of General Sir Arthur Currie, who is asking $50,000 damages in a suit against W. T. R. Preston and F. W. Wilson on account of an article published in The Port Hope Guide, June 13, 1927.

SIGNS IN MONS

For the most part the evidence has dealt with the spectacle seen in the city of Mons by Canadian soldiers when they visited that place around Armistice Day. That persons reading the number of ex-service men have testified they saw the bodies of Canadian soldiers lying in the streets; some have related they heard gunfire in the city at certain hours on the morning of November 11, while others have testified to knowledge of their comrades being wounded by machine guns or other gunshot on that day.

STATEMENT BY JUDGE

Cobourg, Ont., April 19.—A statement by Mr. Justice Hugh Rose, presiding at the trial of the suit for $50,000 for alleged libel brought by General Sir Arthur Currie against W. T. R. Preston and F. W. Wilson, publisher of The Port Hope Guide, to open the defence counsel, featured the opening of to-day's proceedings.

After the court had closed yesterday, said the judge, Mr. Regan had expressed fear that persons reading the press reports of the proceedings and some of the judge's remarks during the day might be led to believe counsel had been intentionally offensive toward the court.

"You know I was not under any such delusion," said the judge. "I had the reporter turn up his notes of what was said. I found that 'this' and 'that' with the contents, was simply that I thought the phrasing of your statement with regard to the admissibility of certain evidence was unfortunate—that your statement as phrased contained an implication of supposition that the reason for my ruling was not that you thought it should have been. It went no further than that. I make this statement now that any misapprehension may be corrected. I merely thought your remark had been unfortunately phrased."

HIS IS PARTY OF FUTURE, SAYS PREMIER KING

The Prime Minister, speaking on "Liberalism," said the Liberal outlook and thought were directed to the future. Those of the Conservatives were directed to the past and found their justification in the past.

"In fiscal matters," he said, "the principle of the future has found its expression in Liberal principles of customs duties for purposes of revenue rather than for purposes of protection to special interests and in the inauguration and intention of the British preferential rates, which in our day have grown to a group of imperial preferences, with promise of ever wider markets in all parts of the British Empire."

The Conservative Party, looking to the past, is still influenced by the fiscal policy which was adopted during the period when the Western provinces were practically unpopulated," continued Mr. King.

TARIFF REDUCTIONS
"The Liberal Party set itself against any general upward revision of the tariff and pleaded itself to a revision downward, where reductions can be made in the national interest. That we have kept this pledge is evidenced by the list of tariff reductions made by the present administration since it assumed office."

RAILWAY GAINS

Mr. King discussed general railway problems with optimism for the future, including the Hudson Bay route.

"The Hudson Bay Railway," he said, "despite formidable opposition, is now nearing completion, and will provide another outlet to the sea for the grain and mineral products of the Middle West and North."

RELATIONS WITH NATIONS

Mr. King expressed the view that in the realm of external affairs, "the controversy between the principle of the future and the principle of the past is likely to be experienced in largest measure."

"If we are to be a nation among the nations of the British Empire, and among the nations of the world, we must be prepared to do as other nations have found it necessary to do in the management of their external affairs and be prepared as circumstances justify to take the responsibility of having our own diplomatic representatives in other countries and meeting the cost of this representation."

"Yet in the fulfilment of this obvious obligation of our nationhood, we are met with the most vigorous opposition by our Conservative opponents in their appeal to the principle of the past."

ANTHEM ISSUE IS RAISED BY BURNABY ROW

IS GENERALLY ACCEPTED
The Weir version of "O Canada" has been widely accepted all over Canada. It is used by almost every Canadian Club in the Dominion which, in addition to the Vancouver Club, and in sung in the schools of the country generally.

The familiar Weir version as used by most public bodies in Victoria, is as follows:

"O Canada, our home, our native land, True patriot love in all thy sons command. With glowing hearts we see thee rise, The true North star, our guide, O Canada, stand on guard for thee, O Canada, stand on guard for thee."

O Canada, glorious and free, We stand on guard for thee, O Canada, we stand on guard for thee. The Buchanan version which the Buchanan trustees insist must be used runs as follows:

"O Canada, our heritage, our love, Thy words we praise all other lands above. From sea to sea throughout the length, From pole to pole, our guide, O Canada, at Britain's side, whatever be the strife, Unflinchingly we'll stand."

With heart we sing God Save the King, Guide thou the Empire wide we implore, And prosper Canada from shore to shore.

DEPARTMENT'S VIEW
The attitude of the Department of Education on the use of various versions of "O Canada" in the public schools was explained officially to-day.

The Weir version of "O Canada" is the established and accepted version in the public school curriculum. It was stated. The Buchanan version, which the Buchanan school trustees ordered to be used in Burnaby schools, is not a part of the authorized curriculum, it was explained. The department, however, has no objection whatever to the Buchanan version for singing purposes in the schools, should the school authorities desire it. The Weir version was inserted in the school readers simply for the sake of uniformity. The readers having been prepared for use in the public schools of the four western provinces, officials said.

PARENTS INDIGNANT
Burnaby parents were roused to indignation by the attempt of their school trustees to force the Buchanan version on the public schools, and warmly endorsed the action of Mr. Brown in refusing to follow the school board's instructions.

"In reference to the charges regarding the singing of the Weir version of 'O Canada,' we consider the School Board has no right to endeavor to have a school principal use any other version than the one authorized by the Department of Education," said a resolution passed by the parents' mass meeting in Burnaby. "We recommend that the School Board co-operate more efficiently with the department of education in future."

Incidentally the meeting absolved Mr. Brown from the School Board's charge that his pupils talked with an "American accent," and that they appeared in a recent school performance in "Hilvian undress." The School Board is being asked to retract these statements as well as retaining the Weir version of the National Anthem in the schools.

TAG DAY ON SATURDAY
On Saturday of this week Victorians will have the opportunity to contribute to the voluntary monetary donations that will be collected on the street corners by the members of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Hospital, who are in charge of the arrangements for the annual tag day and others. The proceeds of the collection will be devoted towards the equipment for the new maternity wing. The headquarters for the day will be at the Balmoral Hotel, Douglas Street. Mrs. Povey having promised the use of a room for the conveners and assistants. Mrs. Vernon Thomson is the general convenor for the tag day and friends of the hospital wishing to assist in the collection on the streets will kindly telephone her.

BOY SLEEPS WHILE HOME IS BLAZING

CHILDREN FIRST
Mr. Brennan's first thought was for the children, Philip and Mary, thirteen and ten years old, respectively. He called to Philip who slept a little down the hall, and rushed to where his daughter lay in bed. All were clad in night attire. He hurried her from the house. Mrs. Brennan followed them, all of them half-choked with the smoke, flames darting out at intervals and scorching them in their flight.

They gained the open air safely and Mrs. Brennan looked about for his son Philip, who was nowhere to be seen.

NEARLY TRAPPED
All unaware of the tragedy which threatened, and the near and steady approach of the flames to the door of his room, the boy slept peacefully on. His mother, distracted, called to him from outside the house. The father leaped through the hallway and up the stairs, which were by this time in the grip of the flames. He raced along the corridor, calling his boy's name. Philip awakened and rubbed his eyes.

In a few seconds he and his father were crawling on hands and knees down the stairway again. Only slightly burned, they finally gained safety and the open air.

VOLUNTEERS ARRIVE
Volunteer fire-fighters from Sidney hurried to the scene of the outbreak shortly after the alarm was spread. There was no fire hydrant sufficiently close to allow them to put any volume of water into action. They were able, with two garden hoses, to saturate nearby buildings, however, and keep them from destruction, by insurance. With nothing but their night attire and what few garments they had saved, the Brennan family was taken to the home of a neighbor for the remainder of the night.

Fire Chief W. Cowell directed protective operations which were carried out by the volunteer firemen. Provincial Police Constable William Hadley gave valuable assistance.

Now, the World's Largest Selling Laxative

The astounding success of "Feen-a-mint" is due to two things:—

1. Because it is the easiest-to-take laxative. "Feen-a-mint" is in the form of chewing gum, delightfully mint-flavored.
2. Because "Feen-a-mint" contains the most harmless yet thoroughly effective laxative known to medical science—phenolphthalein (yellow), which is mixed with the saliva in the chewing process, so it should be to attain best results.

"Feen-a-mint" is fast supplanting disagreeable, harsh, habit-forming and often injurious laxatives and purgatives. The next time you need an internal cleansing, try this new modern chewing gum laxative—"Feen-a-mint."

DEVELOP BRITISH COLUMBIA'S PARKS

WHILE, ACCORDING TO REPORT, the visit of the Minister of Lands to Ottawa is for the purpose of discussing with the Dominion Government details in connection with the return to British Columbia of the railway belt and the Peace River block, it is very desirable that he also should take occasion to deal with the parks question. In the opinion of The Times, which is shared by a great many people in this Province, it would be an excellent thing if all of the provincial park areas were transferred to the Dominion authorities for development as national parks. The Province has neither the organization nor the resources for such a task.

This branch of the Dominion service is most efficiently conducted. Indeed, it is recognized as one of the best operated organizations of its kind in the world. It is under the direction of experts whose activities are untrammelled by partisan politics, and who have ample financial resources to carry on their work. They are anxious to supplement the magnificent system of national parks they have developed in the Rocky Mountains, with a chain of similar resorts from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and for some time have been negotiating with the various provinces for the transfer to them of areas suitable for the purpose.

We understand the Dominion parks authorities want to develop a national park on the West Coast of Vancouver Island. The provincial Government should not hesitate for a moment to co-operate fully with Ottawa in this respect; Dr. Sutherland's announcement that a reserve would be placed upon certain areas along the West Coast highway suggests that this co-operation will be given. A Canadian National Pacific Park on Vancouver Island would be one of the most profitable assets this Province could have.

Incidentally, we would like to emphasize again the certainty that before long Canada's parks will prove a most important factor in her annual income. The contention of those who are lukewarm on this question that the development of a few thousand square miles by the Canadian Government as national parks in British Columbia might impair the prospects of our mining and lumbering industries need not be taken seriously. Apart from the fact that British Columbia has more territory now than she actually needs, and that she is about to get another twenty-two thousand square miles to administer, the proper exploitation of her scenic resources is bound to be one of her most profitable interests.

These resources cost British Columbia nothing, thanks to a beneficent Nature, and if the Dominion Parks Board had charge of them the Province would not have to spend a cent upon them. The Dominion would have to pay for the construction of roads and trails through them, and for the various other features necessary to their fullest development as parks. It is true that somewhere in one or more of these areas there may be some good mining prospect, and no doubt there is excellent timber. But even if there were, it is almost certain that the area would bring more profit to British Columbia in the long run as a park than it would as a mine or a mill. There may be a prospective mine under the Parliament Buildings or at Beacon Hill or Mount Douglas, but these sections are serving very useful purposes in their present condition and we would not disturb them in any case.

It is to be hoped that while he is in Ottawa the Minister of Lands will spend a considerable time in discussing this subject of parks with the Dominion authorities, and on behalf of the Government of which he is a member effect an arrangement under which it will be possible for this Province particularly and Canada as a whole to derive the fullest advantage from the proper development as national parks of the various provincial areas suitable for the purpose.

WILL CONTINUE

THE NEW CATHEDRAL COMMITTEE yesterday evening decided to proceed with the construction of the Nave and to continue the work as long as funds will permit. At the same time a provision has been made under which all parties agree upon the suspension of the work if the necessary funds should not be available. It is the desire of the committee that each stage of the project should be completed free of debt. The committee's decision will meet with general approval and it is to be hoped that the precautionary provision regarding suspension of work if there should not be sufficient funds will not become operative. It would be regrettable from the standpoint of the whole community if it were found impossible to finish that part of the work upon which such satisfactory progress has been made, especially in view of the fact that not more than thirty thousand dollars is needed.

NO TITLES DISCUSSION

SINCE THERE WILL BE NO MORE PRIVATE members' days during the present session of the House of Commons at Ottawa no opportunity will be available for the discussion of Mr. Cahan's motion to rescind the anti-titles declaration of several years ago. It stood on the order paper for some time; but it was not reached. The majority of the people of this country will hope that the proposal will not be referred to again. There is no place in Canada for social distinctions. Our business is that of developing our Dominion.

In respect of titles and their meaning, incidentally, it is interesting to note Mr. Wickham Steed's tribute to the late Earl of Oxford and Asquith. He says in part: "Death is no respecter of titles. The Earl of Oxford and Asquith is gathered to his fathers, and lives again as Mr. Asquith. The trappings and bedizenments of a rank to which he never aspired have fallen from him. As Mr. J. L. Garvin has finely written, he 'evaded the Abbey' with a last touch of his stubborn reserve . . . and his quiet grave will never become obscure." In life it was hard to call him by his new title. In death it is impossible. Lightly as he bore the 'honors,' or burdens, of an earldom and the Garter, powerless though they were to change his bearings, they seemed to his friends and admirers a diminution of his personality and almost a degradation. Mr. Asquith he was in all that made him great, and Mr. Asquith he will remain."

By this reference to the great statesman who has gone to his last rest the former editor of The London Times has dealt a blow at the system which of latter years has got itself into disrepute and is gradually becoming less popular. The circumstances under which Mr. Asquith was chosen for special honors made it difficult for him to refuse without causing offence to friends who, by the way, "chipped in" with funds in order that the days of life left to him might be without financial embarrassment, for he left office a comparatively poor man. His views on the subject, however, were known to be very much the same as those which Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Chamberlain—themselves great leaders of their respective parties—took to their graves with them.

EDUCATION COSTS

IN RECENT MONTHS THERE HAVE been one or two isolated complaints about the amount of money we in British Columbia spend on education. It is pretty certain that very few people have been impressed by the arguments advanced. Preparing our youth for their struggle in life ought to be considered a good investment—which it is. In this connection, however, it is interesting to compare the annual bill for education in British Columbia with that of some other provinces. The following totals are for the fiscal year of 1926: British Columbia, $8,311,629; Alberta, $11,134,391; Saskatchewan, $14,981,083; Manitoba, $9,993,961; Ontario, $45,655,613. For the sake of comparison we may assume that the population of British Columbia, Alberta, and Manitoba is virtually the same, with Saskatchewan approximately 200,000 more than this Province, and Ontario about five times as much. In other words, British Columbia's per capita cost is considerably less than either Alberta or Manitoba, while, for a population of only 200,000 more the Saskatchewan total is greatly in advance of that of this Province. Ontario's per capita expenditure, too, would work out at more than British Columbia's, although greater population should tend to cut the bill in certain aspects of overhead.

From these comparisons it is easy to see that British Columbia by no means is spending too much on education. If a more striking comparison is needed, however, we may refer to the fact that the annual bill for preparing our youth for life's struggle is considerably less than half of the amount we spend each year on booze and horse-racing.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

JUST FANCY!

From The Manchester Guardian

Burst of indignation from a Manchester skater—"This morning's paper must have cruelly shocked the faithful band to whom the sight of figure-skating done supremely well is a most satisfying aesthetic pleasure. For the winner of the competition at Berlin last Sunday—in which, by the way, Mr. Page of Manchester, brought Great Britain second only to Austria—was described by the Press Association foreign special correspondent as 'the world's fancy-skating champion.' 'Fancy! A word associated with jumpers, macramé-work, pastry, shell-covered boxes, plush photograph frames—and the daring, immense jumps, changes of edge, brackets, and rockers of Bockl, pride of Vienna! Fancy, indeed!

"Who can have done this thing? A disciple of the English style, sternly disapproving? Never! While these aesthetes regret, even deplore the 'Continental' innovations, they do it quietly, unostentatiously, as they turn their own 'threes.' A book before me, which recognizes the English style only, says of ice-skating: 'An effort is sometimes made—of course, by first-class skaters only—to get through a series of turns on the ice, but the result is not very often successful or elegant.' But this valuable relic is dated 1896, and devotes much space to gimlets and straps. The English style cannot be suspected of this recent adjectival assault."

JOTS FROM GEOGRAPHY

THE SPOT where D'Herbville, the noted French explorer and adventurer, set foot in Biloxi Bay, is marked with an imposing and stately white cross. D'Herbville with his party rowed up the verdant bay in the year 1699, and planted the standard of France on the soil of Mississippi. Today Biloxi is one of America's tourist resorts.

RE CIVIC TAXATION EXEMPTION

To the Editor:—Regarding letter of Mr. R. H. Chapman in your issue of 14th inst., in which he claims "rout and abandonment."

I abandon nothing, merely concentrate on Example A, for simplification. For peace sake, let us suppose "single tax" doctrine is a grand ideal. If single tax means anything, it means a sole and only tax on land, and no other tax on anything else.

To put it in operation means discarding all other forms.

How is it to be done? With the trinity of taxing bodies existing, federal, provincial and municipal, which is to be unhorsed first? It is submitted, it is a visionary, impracticable theory, disastrous when applied as in Victoria, in a hybrid or mongrel form.

Can you please find space for the paragraphs herewith and greatly oblige.

PARAGRAPHS OF ARGUMENT USED IN CAMPAIGN FOR CITY MANAGER PLAN, INDIANAPOLIS

Under the commission form of city government the commissioners often disagree and work at cross purposes; opposing and defeating each other's policies. Under the city manager plan a majority of the commission rule, pass the laws, elect the manager, etc. They work as a unit, the city manager executes their will.

They object to trying the city manager system because it is new, as though newness was a heinous crime. Everything has to be new sometime; the oldest thing were new now. The sensible question is not how new it is, but how reasonable, how practicable, how well adapted to existing conditions. This objection is a mere pretext.

Under the city manager plan, all the legislative powers of the city are vested in the commission; the manager has nothing to do with ordinances or laws. The commission makes ordinances and rules and employs the manager to enforce them, and if he doesn't, the oldest thing were new now. The sensible question is not how new it is, but how reasonable, how practicable, how well adapted to existing conditions. This objection is a mere pretext.

PLAN CONCLAVE OF CANADIANS

Association of Canadian Clubs to Hold Annual Conference at Calgary

Delegates from all parts of Canada will attend the conference of the Association of Canadian Clubs to be held in Calgary, September 6, 7 and 8, and Graham Spry, national secretary of the organization, is expected here tomorrow on a campaign to arouse interest in the convention.

A dinner in honor of the visitor has been planned for Friday evening, when Mr. Spry will address the local clubmen. He leaves again for Vancouver the following day.

Speaking at Calgary, the national secretary said that the association had set out this year to give the people of the East a better understanding of the people of the West, and that in a measure it was successful. The 105 meetings organized to hear western speakers at points in Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces, men of all ranks and classes discussed problems of a national nature and gained a close intimacy.

As a part of the work of organization, the association has fostered club development throughout Canada, and in place of the fifty-five clubs of a

PUBLIC INVITED TO EXPRESS VIEWS ON CITY ZONING

A public meeting at which representations in regard to the final zoning by-law will be received, has been called by the City Council for 8 p.m. to-day. The meeting is the last public hearing to be held before the zoning ordinance in this city is finally passed in its permanent form. Zoning regulations have been provisionally in force for upwards of a year, and through the Zoning Board of Appeal have so far been carried out with little friction.

Little more than a year ago, there are now 115.

Membership in the club is open to every Canadian, Mr. Spry asserts. Whatever his race, language or creed. The constitution recognizes the equality of the two pioneer races of Canada, the French and the English, and the value of their respective cultures, literature, music and customs. The support of the League of Nations and a national spirit that minimized agitation, is the policy of the association, he points out.

HOME PRODUCTS FAIR TO OPEN NEXT TUESDAY

Promises to Be Most Successful; Forestry Department's Exhibit Feature

This year's Home Products Fair, which opens at the Bay Street Armories next Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, bids fair to be one of the most successful staged in Victoria. All final arrangements have been made and there will be an extra large list of exhibitors. One of the features this year will be the large number of working exhibits to be shown in a considerable number of the exhibits will have moving exhibits on display.

Officials in charge stated to-day that every bit of available floor space has been reserved for exhibitors. The fair will remain open for the whole of next week following the formal opening on Tuesday. Each day the visitors will be entertained with a different programme.

Bandmaster James Miller's orchestra will be in attendance every afternoon and evening.

One of the exhibits this year that should draw considerable attention will be that of the Forestry Department of the Provincial Government. The big feature of this will be the appeal for forest fire prevention, a big danger the Government has to combat every summer.

48TH BATTALION PLAN REUNION

Veterans Will Dine at Chamber of Commerce Saturday

Members of the 48th Battalion C.E.F. who left Victoria for overseas on June 22, 1915 and served in France and Belgium will gather at the annual reunion dinner to be held at the Chamber of Commerce on Saturday at 7.30 o'clock. Many out-of-town members have already signified their intention of being present.

Tickets are on sale at the Horseshoe Cigar Stand and the Veterans of France.

Those failing to purchase tickets will be able to do so at the door. A suitable programme of entertainment is being arranged.

Do You Cough?

Guelph, Ont.—"I caught a severe cold and could not seem to get rid of it. It just clung to me and finally settled in my bronchial tubes causing me a lot of trouble. The cough would be more severe at night than during the day, causing sleeplessness. I finally decided I would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and by the time I had taken one bottle I was entirely relieved of the bronchial trouble—my cough disappeared and I have had no trouble with a cough since. I do not think a person can take anything better for bronchial weakness or deep-seated coughs than the 'Golden Medical Discovery.'—Miss Mary Dugan, 170 Ontario St.

WOMEN BEHIND PEACE DRIVE

Strawberry Vale Institute Unanimous in Support of World's League Society

At a special meeting of Strawberry Vale Women's Institute on Tuesday afternoon the members decided to give their support to the League of Nations Society membership drive.

Plans were made for an entertainment to be given by the Victoria City Temple Hurlers, at Strawberry Vale Hall, on Burnside Road on Friday, April 27, at 8 o'clock. Each ticket holder has a chance to win the ham, which will be given as a tombola prize. Home-made candy will be sold. The Hurlers' orchestra will provide music for a dance to be held at the close of the concert.

At the fortnightly card party on Tuesday evening there were six tables in play. Mr. Scaife won first gentleman's prize, Mr. Ken Foster ten bid, and Mr. Baker consolation. Mrs. G. H. Hurler won first ladies' prize, also ten bid and Mrs. Anderson consolation.

Refreshments were served by the convener, Mrs. Austin and Mrs. Hume. After which the players spent an enjoyable hour in singing.

The next card party will be held at the hall on Wilkinson Road, on the day May 1, at 8 p.m., when good prizes will be given.

MRS. A. DARCH DIES IN SOUTH

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weir of Cumberland Educated in Victoria

Cumberland, April 18.—The death occurred at Long Beach, Calif., on April 12, of Mrs. Annie Weir Forsythe Darch, wife of Judge W. D. Darch, and eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Weir of Cumberland. The late Mrs. Darch was forty-four years of age, born in Nova Scotia and came West with her parents at an early age. She was educated in the public and high schools of Cumberland and Victoria, and was closely associated with the Metropolitan Church during her residence in that city. It was in Victoria that she married the Rev. Samuel McLean Forsythe, B.D., some twenty-four years ago. The Rev. Mr. Forsythe died in Goldendale, Wash., twelve years ago, leaving a family of six children, three boys and three girls. One son, Gordon, died in Long Beach, a few years ago.

Eight years ago Mrs. Darch married Judge W. D. Darch, and has since made her home at Long Beach. At the time of her death she was studying law and would have passed the final examination for admission to the bar this summer if she had lived. She is survived by her husband in California, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Weir of Cumberland, and her brothers, Mr. W. H. Weir of Chilliwack, Mrs. P. P. Harrison of Cumberland, and seven children, two boys and three girls of the first marriage, and two sons, aged seven and five of the second marriage. Much sympathy and regret is expressed at the passing of Mrs. Darch, who has many friends in this district and in Victoria.

RUG MAKING IS NEW ART HERE

Women Turn Deft Fingers to Follow "Chinook" Patterns

Making rugs from "Chinook" patterns has caught the imagination of women in all walks of life and many fingers are now busy creating beautiful rugs from rags and scraps as well as jute and cotton wool. Several fine specimens have been submitted to the Canadian Handicraft Guild at their depot in Vancouver.

"Chinook" rugs were sponsored by the directors of the Provincial Women's Institutes with the hope of giving a pattern to the women of this Province that could be worked out from the waste rags or from the virgin wool that is produced upon the farms. Designs for rugs that are significant of British Columbia have been adapted from the tribal patterns of native Indians who are rich in traditional lore.

From the ceremonial robes of the Interior Kamloops tribe was designed the first rug pattern, conventionalized to background of misty grey mountains covered with snow, trees and campfires, denoting the four seasons of the year. The border is relieved from black and brown colors with the sacred symbol of the "Manitou," in red and white. Conventionalism is favored by many as the most restful design.

The killerwhale of the West Coast Indians is pleasing in bright blue and chrome yellow stripes and fins with a tobacco brown body. The dorsal fin is in black. The whole design lies upon a background of sand and the border is a combination of all colors used in the rug.

The thunderbird of the Nimpkish Indians is designed in a riot of colors but arresting in effect. On a solid background, this huge bird of "good omen" stretches his wings the full length of the rug and is worked out in bright red, yellow, grey, green and white, and is most attractive for a sun room.

The Chinook robe design is adapted directly from the ancient blanket that is in the Provincial Museum here. This rare old specimen is at least a century old but the workmanship and design is distinct and still beautiful. The rug design is not so intricate in pattern or detail as the original blanket, but quite as attractive and almost savage in its appearance. The colors used are grey-green, bright yellow, black and white, being more difficult to work out but easily worth more when well done.

Her Excellency Lady Willingdon has signified her willingness to inspect the W.I. exhibits in the Hudson's Bay store in Vancouver on May 3 at the invitation of the Women's Institute branch of the Department of Agriculture. Lady Willingdon is honorary president of the Federated Women's Institute of Canada.

The board of directors of the Provincial Women's Institutes will form the reception committee, being Mrs. J. D. Gordon of Victoria, president; Mrs. J. Noble of Hatteras, vice-president; Mrs. H. McGregor of Penikese, second vice-president; Mrs. M. L. Murray of Vancouver, secretary; and Mrs. H. B. Pitts of Nelson, treasurer.

The exhibition of old-time quilts and Chinook rugs will be held from April 30 to May 5 in Vancouver in the Hudson's Bay store on Granville Street.

The "Luxury" of a Clay Pack

By Edna Wallace Hopper
Do you regard a clay pack as one of those delightful inventions for those who can pay to look young? When your own face seems to sag, looks sallow and tired, do you simply accept it as "one of those things?"

All it needs is care. A tired skin can be remarkably refreshed by my simple clay pack.

Get a tube of Edna Wallace Hopper's White Youth Clay and apply it as directed. When you wash it off the pleasant afterglow. The pores are freed of tiny, blanching cysts of dirt which become imbedded and, particularly in oily skins, form blackheads. Your face is thoroughly freed from these obstructions and the pores can function normally. The clay also is an astringent, leaving the pores closed, the skin firm and clear.

My White Youth Clay is the only product of its kind of which I know. It is dainty and agrees to be used. Get it at any toilet counter, in several sizes.

The "CANARY" MURDER CASE

By E. S. VAN DINE
Author of "The Benson Murder Case"

We sought the Palm Room, and sat down at a table near the entrance. Vance ordered oolong tea, but Markham and I took black coffee. A very capable four-piece orchestra was playing, and we sat restfully in comfortable chairs without speaking. Markham was busy with the problem that had absorbed him continuously since Tuesday morning. Never before had I seen him so preoccupied.

We had been there perhaps half an hour when Spotswoode strolled in. He stopped and spoke, and Markham asked him to join us. He, too, appeared depressed, and his eyes showed signs of worry.

"I hardly dare ask you, Mr. Markham," he said diffidently, after he had ordered a ginger ale. "But how do my chances stand now of being called as a witness?"

"That fate is certainly no nearer than when I last saw you," Markham replied. "In fact, nothing has happened to change the situation materially."

"And the man you had under suspicion?"

"He's still under suspicion, but no arrest has been made. We're hoping, however, that something will break before long."

"And I suppose you still want me to remain in the city?"

"If you can arrange it—yes," Spotswoode was silent for a time; then he said:

"I don't want to appear to shirk any responsibility—and perhaps it may seem wholly selfish for me even to suggest it—but, in any event wouldn't the testimony of the telephone operator as to the hour of Miss Odell's return and her calls for help be sufficient to establish the facts, without my corroboration?"

"I have thought of that, of course, and if it is possible to prepare the case for the prosecution without summoning you to appear, I assure you it will be done. At the moment, I can see no necessity of your being called as a witness. But one never knows what may turn up. If the defence hinges on a question of exact time, and the operator's testimony is questioned or discredited for any reason, you may be required to come forward. Otherwise not."

Spotswoode slipped his ginger ale. A little of his depression seemed to have departed.

"You're very generous, Mr. Markham. I wish there was some adequate way of thanking you." He looked up hesitatingly. "I presume you are still opposed to my visiting the apartment."

"I know you think the unreasonable and perhaps sentimental; but the girl represented something in my life that I find very difficult to tear out. I don't expect you to understand it—I hardly understand it myself."

CHAPTER XXX

"I think it's easily understandable, don't you know," remarked Vance, with a sympathy I had rarely seen him manifest. "Your attitude needs no apology. History and fable are filled with the same situation, and the protagonists have always exhibited sentiments similar to yours. Your most famous prototype, of course, was Odysseus on the citadel-scattered island of Ogygia with the fascinating Calypso. The soft arms of sirens have gone snaking round men's necks ever since the red-haired Lith worked her devastating wiles on the impressionable Adam. We're all sons of that racy old boy."

Spotswoode smiled. "You at least give me an historic background," he said. Then he turned to Markham. "What will become of Miss Odell's possessions—her furniture and so forth?"

"Sergeant Heath heard from an aunt of hers in Seattle," Markham told him. "She's on her way to New York, I believe, to take over what there is of the estate."

"And everything will be kept intact until then?"

"Probably longer, unless something unexpected happens. Anyway, until then."

"There are one or two little trinkets I'd like to keep," Spotswoode confessed, a bit shamefacedly, I thought. After a few more minutes of desultory talk he rose, and, pleading an engagement, bade us good afternoon. "I hope I can keep his name clear of the case," said Markham, when he had gone.

Yes; his situation is not an enviable one, concurred Vance. "It's always sad to be found out. The moralist would set it down to retribution."

"In this instance chance was certainly the side of righteousness. If he hadn't chosen Monday night for the Winter Garden, he might now be in the bosom of his family, with nothing more troublesome to bother him than a guilty conscience."

"It certainly looks that way," Vance glanced at his watch. "And your mention of the Winter Garden reminds me. Do you mind if we dine early? Privately beckons me to-night, I'm going to the 'Scandals.'"

"Don't be so horrified, my Markham. Why should I not indulge an impulse? And, incidentally, because I have glad tidings for you by lunch-time tomorrow."

(Friday, September 14, noon)
Vance slept late the following day. I had accompanied him to the "Scandals" the night before, utterly at a loss to understand his strange desire to attend a type of entertainment which I knew he detested. At noon he ordered his car, and instructed the chauffeur to drive to the Belsfield Hotel.

"We are about to call again on the alluring Alys," he said. "I'd bring poster to lay at her shrine, but I fear dear Mannix might question her unduly about them."

Miss La Fosse received us with an air of crestfallen resentment. "I might've known it!" she nodded her head with answering perception. "I suppose you've come to tell me the cops found out about me without the slightest assistance from you." Her disdain was almost magnificent. "Did you bring 'em with you? A swell guy you are!—But it's my own fault for being a damn fool."

Vance waited unmoved until she had finished her contemptuous tirade. Then he bowed pleasantly.

"Really, y' know, I merely dropped in to pay my respects, and to tell you that the police have turned in their report of Miss Odell's acquaintances, and that your name was not mentioned in it. You seemed a little worried yesterday on that score, and it occurred to me I could set your mind wholly at ease."

DOCTOR WILL ADDRESS WOMEN AT PLAYHOUSE

"Sex Hygiene" and "Birth Control" are the two subjects that Dr. Lyle Telford will lecture on at Thursday and Friday matinees at the Playhouse Theatre.

Up to a very recent date whenever the above subjects were mentioned it had to be behind closed doors or in a whisper. Parents of young children refused to impart any of this knowledge to them, classing it as material that should be kept secret.

To-day even the clergy are taking up the fight to have sex knowledge given to all so that they may protect themselves when they come in contact with the world.

Doctor Telford is probably the foremost figure among the groups that have fearlessly taken up this task in this country. Of the thousands that have recently heard him, the utmost praise has been given to him. Large crowds are expected during his three-day stay in Victoria.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The Rev. John Campbell, M.A., D.D., at Breda, 2347 Windsor Road, his residence, on Tuesday evening, celebrated a marriage which made Helen Irene Ketchum, the bride of Mr. Marvin J. Conklin, both of Toledo, Ore., U.S.A. They are enjoying a honeymoon in this city, after which they will make their home in Toledo.

The Sunday school of the Emmanuel Baptist Church will give a pageant on Friday evening, April 20, in the schoolroom, commencing at 8 o'clock, entitled "In Old Jerusalem." The principal solo parts will be taken by Miss Gladys Marchant and Harold Parke. In addition to the pageant chorus singing will be given by the whole Sunday school and the primary and junior departments will give recitations and songs. Mrs. Henry Knox will preside.

One of the first dances of the Summer season will be given by the members of the Marguerite Chapter, I.O. D.E., on May 2 at Hamsterley Lakeside. The following members of the chapter are making the arrangements for the dance: Mrs. Bruce Hutchinson, Miss Mary Campbell, Miss Margaret McVittie and Miss Yoder Pemberton, who have charge of the decorations; Miss Nora MacEachern, Miss Layla Forman and the Misses Helen and Kathleen Colman, who have charge of the refreshments, while the regent, Mrs. Clifford Adams, and Miss Dolly Payne will be in charge of sale of tickets. A number of parties have already been made up for the dance, and it is expected that there will be a large number of guests in attendance.

Metropolitan W.M.S.—There was a large gathering Monday of the members and interested friends at the Easter meeting of the W.M.S. of the Metropolitan Church, the members of the Ladies' Aid being the especially invited guests of the afternoon. The pupils of the Oriental Home, under the direction of their teachers, the Misses Baker, Bach and Ede, provided a most interesting programme. The Easter story from Matthew was read by Miss Helen Mah. It was followed by prayer, led by Miss Garbett. Piano numbers were given by Miss Violet Jim, songs by Miss Frances Hoden, followed by a number of songs and recitations by the kindergarten tots. At the close of the programme, Mrs. Saunby thanked the pupils for their excellent entertainment. The offering of the afternoon amounted to well over $100. Mrs. W. A. Tuck, who had become a life member of the W.M.S., was presented with the life membership certificate by the president. At the close of the meeting the social committee, under the direction of Mrs. White, served tea and a social time was enjoyed.

Amherst College was named for Lord Jeffrey Amherst.

YOUR BABY and MINE

By MRS. MARY METER ELWOOD

Mrs. Elwood will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

WEAN THE BABY BEFORE THE BEGINNING OF HOT WEATHER

The fear of the second Summer is beginning to grip the throats of mothers already. It is an old bugaboo and hard to down, and people fail to realize that since we have begun to pay attention to the kind of food given the baby the second year, the way we care for bottles and nipples, if he is still a bottle baby, the caution used in handling the milk and keeping it cold, and the kind of milk we buy, has really made the second Summer harmless.

To all the mothers who have asked me if they shall wean the baby now or nurse him through the Summer, I am writing the following paragraphs. Read them and take them to heart.

If your baby will be nine months old in May or June (or even if he is only seven months and is already showing signs of being dissatisfied with his breast feeding), begin the weaning process early enough so that he will be established on milk by the time the hot months arrive. These are usually July and August in most states. This idea that children should be nursed through the second Summer for fear of Summer complaint, is responsible for a lot of under-nourished children. The weaver mother is quite incapable of furnishing her baby enough nourishment after the ninth month; in fact, she's very lucky if she can nurse her baby that long. Surely it is easy to see that however pure mother's milk is, if it doesn't nourish the baby it is folly to continue it. Besides, the baby doesn't have to have Summer complaint if you are careful how you feed him.

There is a far greater temptation to offer food which he shouldn't eat to the whining, crying baby who is badly nourished, than there is to the child who is getting a wholesome and adequate diet.

Most things told mothers about this prolonged nursing are absurd. Continued nursing isn't going to improve a child's chances to get teeth, if they aren't already hopping in before he is one year old. And just because he is under-nourished, or badly nourished his chances of being ill while teething are increased. So, nursing makes all that worse instead of better, as so many obliging neighbors tell young mothers. Let me reiterate this: The best advice I can give mothers is to wean the baby early in the Spring if nursing through the Summer will carry him past the first year. There are conceivable cases where it has been done without injury, but that doesn't make it a good general practice just the same. Rules are made for the many, not the few.

MACAULAY GOLF CLUB START TO FIND CHAMPIONS

Qualifying Round of Men and Women's Championship to Be Held This Week-end

First of the local golf clubs to start their annual elimination series to determine their champions in both the men's and women's classes, the Macaulay Point Golf Club will hold the qualifying rounds of their club championships this week-end.

The women will tee off on Saturday over eighteen holes, while the men will play over thirty-six holes the following day.

The championships have drawn the largest entry list in the long history of the club. Fifty-six will compete in the men's event while twenty-two will start off in the women's competition. The sixteen lowest scores in the men's event will qualify while in the women's event the eight low scores will qualify.

DEFENDING TITLE
J. A. Montgomery, the present men's champion, will defend his honors and will find a very fast field out to relieve him of his crown. Several of the veterans are right on their game, while some of the youngsters, particularly Norman Wallace, who holds the course record, are going in great style. Art Christopher, a former champion and runner-up last year, will not play this time but his younger brother and his father have tossed their hats into the ring.

CHAMPION PLAYS

Miss Helen Dawson, present women's champion, will seek to retain the title. She is playing a very sound game at present. The field this year contains a number of fine players and there should be some good matches before the title is finally disposed of.

MEN'S DRAW

The draw for the men is as follows:
8.30—F. Sydnell and F. Ester.
8.35—D. Pyrie and A. E. Ashe.

LOUGHRAN IS MAN TO BEAT GENE TUNNEY

Jack Britton Says There Is Only One Fighter He Would Bet to Beat Champ

Loughran Almost Cried When He Beat Dempsey in Training; Could Not Get Match

By HENRY L. FARNELL
You may get ready to laugh this off. In fact, before it is sprung, chuckles, jeers and assorted brands of razberries, can be distinguished in the making in the vicinity of the Tunney estate.

As a sort of introduction it might be mentioned for the sake of formality that Gene Tunney is the heavyweight champion of the world and that even his critics have to admit that he has an edge on the other current heavyweights.

Under the circumstances any discussion of the heavyweight situation involves matching of opinions as to how long Tunney will be able to hold the title and who will be able to beat him. Such a discussion was held recently. Present were a nationally known referee of recent years, two of three world managers and some well-known fighters.

If there was anything decided in the discussion it was that Tunney would have to age down to his challengers as Dempsey did and that the process in a clean-living man and hard worker like Tunney might take considerable time.

BRITTON'S OPINION
"What do you think of it, Jack?" was asked of one of the listeners who, as is characteristic with him, hadn't said a word.

"Tunney's better than any of those fellows they're talking about now," Britton answered. "There's only one fighter I wouldn't bet against to beat Tunney—Tommy Loughran."

It might be interposed here that while fighters are notoriously poor judges of fight and other fighters, Britton is one of the best pickers on the continent. He has been right on the winner of very big fights for years and his opinion is respected by some of the biggest operators in New York.

When Britton named Loughran, the light heavyweight champion, as the one fighter he would not bet against in a match with Tunney, there were skeptical glances turned in his direction.

"You're crazy," Dan Morgan, his old manager, said. "Maybe I am," Britton said. "But remember you said the same thing in Philadelphia. You went for plenty and I picked up quite a little."

"Here's the way I figure it," Britton went on. "We all know how good Tunney is, how he lives and takes care of himself and how he believes in himself. But he's going right now. He can't help it. He's going to get in the same hole that Dempsey was. He won't be able to fight enough to keep in form. I know from experience that you have to keep fighting to keep going. I've been going longer than any of them and I think I ought to know."

THE BIG TROUBLE
"Lots of times I laid off fighting during the summer. I kept in shape, though, by walking, rowing, swimming, handball and other forms of exercise and kept down my weight. But when I went in for the winter work and started fighting I found that it never took me less than two months to get just right. And listen; I didn't have to stop them and take them, like those big fellows. I could take my time working up to big bouts, but those big fellows have to be just right for the one fight."

"They say that Loughran can't hit, but didn't they say the same about Tunney? They say that Loughran is only a fair light heavyweight champion, and they say the same thing about Tunney. They say that Loughran has had a lot of bad fights, but didn't they say Tunney?"

"You will find in looking them over that Loughran is following the same path that Tunney had to follow. A hard road to get recognition. Tunney had to build himself up physically and fight to get a reputation, and Loughran is having to do the same thing."

"They've both got all the confidence in the world, they're both clean living, but Tunney will be forced by circumstances to lay up and Loughran can keep going and getting better and better."

"You may think that Loughran is a second rate, but I'll tell you that a second rate who has been fighting right along is a dangerous man for any champion who has been out a long time and has to step in and fight one great fight."

DEMPEY GREATEST
"I thought, and still think, that Dempsey was the greatest of the heavyweight champions that I have seen, and I have seen a lot of them in my time. I thought that Tunney was only an ordinary good fighter. But I bet on Tunney to beat Dempsey at Philadelphia and I was ashamed to bet on Tunney in Chicago. I bet on Tunney in Philadelphia just because Dempsey had been out of the ring too long. I backed my judgment against the knowledge that Dempsey could knock out anyone with one or two punches, and against my knowledge that Tunney has one bad fault—he doesn't duck, and anyone that holds his head up for Dempsey is taking a terrible chance."

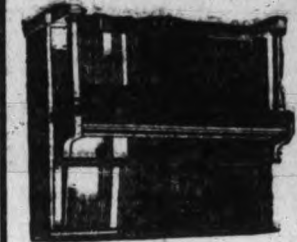

"Before the fight in Philadelphia, I saw Pat Levinaky. He used to be in Morgan's string with me and we are old friends. He's also a smart better. He asked me who I liked and I told him Tunney and he told me he was taking all the long-price money he could get the same way. I told him I wasn't betting as much as he was and cautioned him about the way Tunney stood up and the way Dempsey could hit, even if his legs were good."

"I told me that he had been talking to Tommy Loughran. Loughran had been working with Dempsey and, you remember, the papers told how he had made a monkey of Dempsey in the sparring ring and that they had had some private workouts."

LOUGHRAN UNLUCKY
"Loughran was almost crying," Bat told me. "He said Tunney was the luckiest guy in the world in getting the first shot at Dempsey. He said, and he is no boaster, that he had beaten Dempsey with the little gloves and could have stopped him in the training camp, that he knew it and that the camp knew it. Team Are Presented With Their Prizes

An interesting ceremony took place at the Normal School last night when the school men's basketball team, winners of the city championship, were presented with their cups and prizes by Alderman James Adam.

In presenting the trophies Alderman Adam dealt briefly on the fine championship of the team this season. Owing to the fact that "Pie" Campbell, captain of the team, is now in Kelowna, Principal MacLaurin was presented with the trophy. Each member of the team was presented with a miniature cup.

Alderman Adam also spoke for a short time on his trip to New Zealand with the All-Canadian soccer team.

Thirteen-minute Advantage Held

By Payne In Race

Miami, Okla., April 19.—Peter Gavuzet, of Southampton, England, almost recaptured the leadership in the cross-country marathon yesterday.

The Britisher finished first in the fifty-two miles from Chelsea, Okla., in 6:42:28, bringing his elapsed time for the 1,721 miles to 287:55:38. Although Payne did not come in until fifth, when he finished with Ed. Gardner, Seattle negro, in a dead heat in 8:31:30, his elapsed time of 287:42:22 gave him a thirteen-minute advantage over his most persistent rival.

John Salo, Pasalic, N.J., forced out temporarily Tuesday with stomach trouble, made up his time yesterday, and finished second with an elapsed time of 308:14:47. That keeps him in third place. He said he virtually had recovered from the illness.

Ohl Wanttinen of New York, finished third in 7:56:30, his elapsed time being 335:00:05.

Louis Fessila, Albany, N.Y., finished fourth in 8:19:37, elapsed time being 334:58. Flat Gardner's elapsed time was 325:25:17.

BUREAU VOTE REDUCED IN FINAL VOTE

City Council By 6-4 Vote Sets Grant For Year at $21,500 Council Adds $1,100 to Estimates For Other Items at Same Meeting

Urged for the second time to restore the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau vote to the former grant of $24,500 per annum, the City Council, in estimates meeting yesterday afternoon, refused to depart from the figure of $21,500 voted for this year.

Alderman J. L. Mara introduced the motion to restore the grant, and was supported by Mayor J. C. Pendray, Alderman John Worthington and Alderman John Harvey. Aldermen William Marchant, E. S. Woodward, P. R. Brown, J. B. Clearhue, James Adam and H. O. Litchfield voted against the restoration of the $3,000 cut. Alderman R. A. C. Dewar was in the chair and was not called on to vote.

The delegation from the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau had made out a sound case, and the amount of the reduction represented little saving compared to the loss of efficiency in the work, stated Alderman Mara in introducing the subject. Mr. Mara moved the vote be restored to $24,500.

Alderman Adam—The Bureau should get $25,000 all right, and it is little enough, but this year we are trying every means of reducing the cost of the city.

Alderman Marchant—I don't think we should go back and revise any estimate now, after making such serious efforts to cut all round.

Alderman Clearhue—I feel the same as Alderman Adam. The sum of $25,000 is little enough for the bureau, but, at the same time, we have got to cut our budget somewhere. An increase in the rate would be a far worse knock than the slight cut in the publicity vote.

Alderman Woodward—I move we refer this vote to the publicity department of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

MERCHANTS PAYING

Mayor Pendray—I have reconsidered my stand on this question, and when you remember that the merchants are paying for the grant and over, by means of trades licenses, I think we should be able to afford the $25,000. I would make it $20,000, with an additional $5,000 conditional on a like sum being raised from other sources, the same as in other years.

Alderman Marchant—It is very noticeable that on certain questions there are members on the council who get weak-kneed. I feel very sad about this, for it means that there will be further cuts made in the streets and works votes. If we raise the grant again our public utilities must and will suffer. I won't change my mind now, and it is a matter of absolute weakness to decide one thing one day, and change around the next.

Alderman Mara's motion to restore the grant to the usual figure was then taken, and lost by 6-4. The grant remains at $21,500 in the estimates for this year.

Two additions were made to the budget at the same session, when $900 was added to a vote of $3,000 for new water mains, and $200 added to an item to cover special grants. Of this latter amount, $100 was voted to the Victoria Boys' Pipe Band to permit their attendance on behalf of the city at the Bellingham Tulp Festival. A like request for $75 from the City Temple Band was refused.

The council then went into committee on the whole, when the Merchant scale of maximum and minimum salaries for civic workers was discussed, without final action being taken. The Merchant report was reviewed in part, but the debate ran into heavy weather, and the council rose at 5 p.m., asking leave to continue the discussion at a further date.

At 8 p.m. to-day the council will sit again in special meeting, to hear public representations on zoning affairs, as a preliminary to the final passage of the permanent zoning regulations.

Langford

Langford, April 19.—Mrs. Woodley and her children, from "Dogwood Lodge", Leigh Road, have moved to Cordova Bay.

Mrs. Guy Raymond and her sons, from Leigh Road, Langford Lake, have gone to reside in Victoria.

The monthly afternoon children's service will not be held in St. Matthew's Church during the summer months. It is hoped that all children will attend the 11 o'clock morning service on the fourth Sunday of the month from now until further announcement is made, as special hymns will be sung.

The Belmont Badminton Club visited the Oak Bay Badminton Club on Tuesday last. Games were played in the St. Mary's Hall, and some excellent matches resulted.

Ladies' doubles, mixed doubles and men's doubles resulted in a win for the Belmont Club, fourteen games to four.

The regular monthly Women's Institute meeting will be held in their hall on Tuesday, April 21, at 2 p.m. Besides general business, an address on juvenile immigration will be delivered. Visitors are invited and afternoon tea will be served.

Under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, Prince Edward Branch No. 51, a card party will be held at the Matchford Hall on Friday, April 20, commencing at 8 p.m. Bridge, five hundred and whist will be enjoyed.

Langford, April 19.—The North Sooke basketball team visited Langford on Monday afternoon to play against the school team at the Matchford ground. A good match took place, resulting in a win for the home team by eight points to three. The Langford team comprised George and Robert Broderick, George Duncan, Jack Wilkinson and Quan Gong.

Mrs. May Hubner and son John, from Vancouver, former pupils of Langford Lake, were visiting their friends here last week.

Victoria Wilton, and Kathleen Williams were two new pupils in the junior school, enrolled on Monday.

Births, Marriages, Deaths

BORN

COX—On April 18, to Mr. and Mrs. R. Cox of 1415 Fernwood Road, at the Jubilee Hospital, a son.

NOBBS—To Mr. and Mrs. P. Nobbs of 1544 Amphion Street, on April 19, at Jubilee Hospital, a son.

PETERSON—On April 18, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Peterson of 124 St. Lawrence Street, at the Jubilee Hospital, a son.

SPARLING—To Mr. and Mrs. D. Sparling of Deep Cove, on April 19, at Jubilee Hospital, a son.

DIED

FORSTYTH—On Tuesday, April 17, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Ellen Josephine Forstyth, aged fifty-three years, beloved wife of James Forstyth, formerly of the late Mrs. Forstyth, who was born in Nova Scotia and had resided in the Province for the past forty-eight years. She is mourned by her husband and one daughter.

Evening two sisters, Mrs. A. E. Whitaker of Victoria and Mrs. P. Beasom of Chatham, N.C., also two brothers, W. A. Guthrie and J. E. Guthrie of New Westminster.

The funeral will take place on Friday morning, proceeded to the family residence, 57 Cambridge Street, Mrs. Christina Isabel Morrison, aged seventy years, native of Belfast, Prince Edward Island, and a resident of this city for the past fifteen years. She leaves to mourn her loss four sons and three daughters.

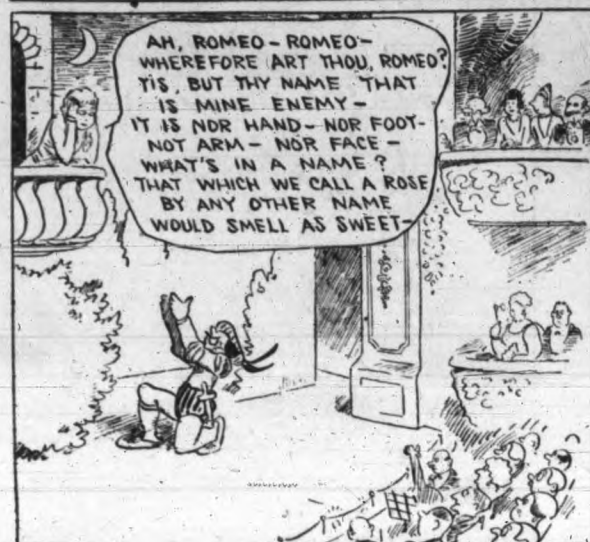

The remains are resting at the Thomson Funeral Home, 1625 Quadra Street, from where the funeral will take place Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, when the Rev. J. G. O. Bompas will conduct the service, after which the remains will be forwarded on the midnight boat to Vancouver, en route to Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island.

STEWART—There passed away at Parkville, B.C., on Tuesday, April 17, Bertha Stewart, widow of William Handolph Stewart of Parkville, B.C., formerly of the late Mrs. Stewart, who was born in Nova Scotia and had resided in the Province for the past forty-eight years. She is mourned by her husband and one daughter.

Evening two sisters, Mrs. A. E. Whitaker of Victoria and Mrs. P. Beasom of Chatham, N.C., also two brothers, W. A. Guthrie and J. E. Guthrie of New Westminster.

The funeral will take place on Friday morning, at 11 o'clock, when the Rev. Dr. J. Campbell will officiate. The remains will be laid to rest in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS—Mrs. Thomson desires to express her heartfelt gratitude to the many friends for words of sympathy and the many beautiful flowers sent during her recent bereavement in the loss of a loving husband.

AM, ROMEO—ROMEO—WHEREFORE ART THOU ROMEO? 'TIS, BUT THY NAME THAT IS MINE ENEMY—IT IS NOT HAND—NOR FOOT—NOT ARM—NOR FACE—WHAT'S IN A NAME? THAT WHICH WE CALL A ROSE BY ANY OTHER NAME WOULD SMELL AS SWEET.

BY LOVE'S LIGHT I DID O'ERPERCH THESE WALLS—THEREFORE THY KINSMEN ARE NO LET TO ME—ALAS, THERE LIES MORE PERIL IN THINE EYES THAN TWENTY OF THEIR SWORDS—LOOK THOU BUT SWEET—AND I AM FREE AGAINST THEIR ENMITY.

LET 'EM GET MARRIED—THAT'S ALL—WANT A COUPLE OF YEARS—AND THEN WHEN JULIET SAYS—'ROMEO—ROMEO—WHEREFORE WERT THOU ROMEO?'—HE'D BETTER HAVE HIS ALIBI READY—OR HE'LL SPEND THE NEXT FEW WEEKS EXPLAINING HOW HE GOT THE BLACK EYE BY WALKING INTO A DOOR—

At 1717 Fairfield Road, E. Durrant will build a combined store and home, to cost $4,250. Incidental permits to a value of $18,000 were listed in the first half of this week.

NO IMMEDIATE PLAN TO REMODEL JEWELL BUILDING

Property Figuring in $190,000 Sale in Business Section of City Has History

Purchase by Eastern Canadian interests of the Jewell Block, located in the centre of the business section of the city at the southwest corner of Yates and Douglas Streets, at a cost of about $190,000, has not involved immediate remodeling operations, as the present lease, held by the B.C. Land and Investment Agency, does not expire until 1931, was stated today by Alfred Carmichael, president of Carmichael & Company Limited, representing the purchasers of the building.

The intentions of the new owners in modernizing the building property could not be divulged at present, stated Mr. Carmichael.

Joseph Bridgman acted for the vendors in the property deal, which is one of the most important put through in recent years.

"The sale of the Jewell building is a good thing for the city as it will have a tendency to strengthen property values," said Mr. Carmichael in discussing the deal this morning.

The Jewell building, which houses the local branch of the Dominion Bank, various other offices, and the Brunswick Hotel, has an interesting story.

The property on which it stands was formerly owned by Adolph Van Lokeren, who sold it to his brother, Hildebrand Van Lokeren, and it has been in the family ever since.

Baron Ludwig Lowenberg, who founded the present real estate firm of Joseph Bridgman, was the first agent for the Van Lokeren property, and the same agents have collected the rents of the building for the last twenty years.

The Lowenberg firm later became Lowenberg and Harris, then H. M. Graham, a member of the firm took over the agency from Graham, A. W. Bridgman became head of the business here, Joseph C. Bridgman assuming control in 1919.

VANCOUVER CLUB HEARS PREMIER

Dr. MacLean Tells of Financial Position of British Columbia

Vancouver, April 19.—Revenue is not all taxation, Premier J. D. MacLean informed the Vancouver Kiwanis Club at a luncheon today. British Columbia's total revenue of approximately $19,000,000 a year is only thirty-nine per cent direct taxation, he stated.

British Columbia's revenue comes at present from sources which he classified as follows:

1. Direct taxation, thirty-nine per cent.
2. Grants, licenses and fees for services rendered, forty-eight per cent.
3. Luxury taxes, liquor, racing, amusement and other sources.
4. Large items listed in the revenue represented no taxation for or by the Provincial Government, he stated, citing the grants received directly from the Federal Government and the mutual tax, which was distributed annually among the municipalities, playing no part whatever in Provincial Government financing.

LARGE ITEMS
Some of the large items of provincial revenue were given as:

Income from net profits on natural resources, $3,500,000; licenses and royalties on forests, $3,200,000; profits from sale of liquor, $2,500,000; motor vehicle licenses, $1,000,000; real property, $1,100,000.

In the first few years after Confederation a total revenue of $17,000, the Federal Government gave $214,000 in grants. Of the taxes levied by the Province the poll tax yielded the largest sum.

C.P.R. Does Share In Clean-up Campaign

Over $20,000 Paid in Wages During March Covering Work on Coast Fleet; Sixty-five Painters Engaged This Month in Decorating Boats; Improvements Being Carried Out on Steamer Princess Mary

In overhauling operations and effecting improvement to vessels of the coast fleet at Victoria the Canadian Pacific Railway disbursed over $20,000 in payment of wages alone for labor during the month of March.

An average of forty painters were engaged in dressing up boats of the B.C. Coast Steamship Service during the months of January, February and March and sixty-five painters have been employed by the company here throughout the present month.

The company is also spending about $25,000 in new wharf construction at Belleville Street, the Victoria Pile Driving Company now being engaged on a contract which will give added space to the local docks. The above figures, giving an indication of the company's monthly expenditure in a single branch of its operations at the city, were given to the Times this morning by Capt. J. W. Troup, manager of the B.C. Coast Steamship Service.

"So you see, we are doing our part in the Clean-up Campaign," declared Capt. Troup, and this is work that is going on all the time.

ALTERATIONS TO PRINCESS MARY

Considerable improvements are now being carried out on board the Princess Mary, which is lying alongside the Belleville Street wharves of the company.

These improvements are to better fit the vessel for the tourist traffic to the west coast of Vancouver Island, on which route the Mary will be operated this Summer, in conjunction with the Princess Naquah.

Captain Troup stated that a navigating bridge is being built forward, this being a feature that the boat hitherto lacked, the vessel having been navigated from the pilot house.

The navigating bridge will facilitate the docking of the vessel in the small harbor, and difficult landing places along the west coast.

A combined observation room and dancing pavilion is also being built aft and will prove an attractive addition to the ship's accommodation.

The Summer schedule to the west coast of the Island, in which the Princess Mary will figure this year, will be effective on June 30.

WHARF IMPROVEMENTS AT NANAIMO

Work was commenced today, Capt. Troup states, on improvements to the wharf at Nanaimo for the accommodation of the new steamer Princess Elaine, which is expected to arrive here in a month on her maiden voyage from the Clyde. A long ramp is being built to better facilitate the loading and landing of automobiles.

West Burnaby, April 19.—The shadow of the Burnaby School Board's displeasure appears still to hang over Clifford G. Brown, principal of the Burnaby South High School. At a special meeting last night the board refused to rescind the former resolution criticizing the principal for permitting Hawaiian costumes to be worn by two pupils of the school at a school concert, and also expressed the opinion he had shown disrespect on account of the use of the word "O Canada" in the school.

The word version is the one authorized by the Department of Education of British Columbia.

ONLY TRUSTEES TALKED
Although a number of parents and others were present at the meeting last night, only the teaching staff of the school remained in the hall. The board decided to discuss the whole question with the staff at another special meeting to be held next week.

Discussion then centred on the report of Trustee G. Grant, chairman of the management committee meeting of April 16. H. Stanley, chairman of the board, remained firm in his attitude concerning the Hawaiian costumes worn by two pupils of the Burnaby South High School.

"I have never said the costumes worn by these girls were indecent," he declared. "On the contrary, I think they were very pretty and very good, but I will always hold that a school concert was not the proper place for them to have been worn."

A motion by Trustee Grant that the former resolution condemning Principal Brown on account of permitting the costumes to be worn be rescinded was defeated. Trustees Grant and J. P. Dickson voted for and Trustees C. M. Harper and H. Stanley voted against it, the latter, as chairman, giving his casting vote against it. Trustee Baxter refused to vote.

DISRESPECT DECLARED SHOWN
The board also remained firm in its contention that Principal Brown had shown disrespect in the manner of his version of "O Canada," but agreed, on the suggestion of Trustee Grant, that the principal's explanation should be taken into consideration.

BUCHAN VERSION
The board had requested the Buchanan version of "O Canada" be used. With regard to the singing of the word version of "O Canada," Trustee Grant said Mr. Brown, in his explanation, and resolutions passed at an indignation meeting of parents Tuesday night had misinterpreted the attitude of the Department of Education.

At a recent convention of school trustees the Minister of Education had stated, he said, quoting from the official transcript, that the department had no objection to any version of "O Canada" being sung.

Trustee Grant placed himself on record as of the opinion that until the matter was definitely settled and the board had come to a unanimous agreement, no good could be obtained from the trustees singly attending any meeting of parents.

The resolution passed Monday night referring to the costumes worn by the girls as "indecent" was accepted without revision. Trustees Baxter, Stanley and Harper voting for and Trustees Grant and Dickson against.

ASSOCIATION RESOLUTION
At a meeting of parents of Burnaby South High School pupils on Tuesday night last, a resolution was adopted, reported that the Parent-Teacher Association had, on a motion from Burnaby proposed by Trustee Dickson at a recent convention, urged for the sake of uniformity the adoption of the word version of "O Canada."

Mrs. Harper, wife of Trustee Harper, had also proposed such a motion at Burnaby association meeting.

ONTARIO COLONEL LOOKS UP COLLEGE CHUMS ON VISIT

Lt.-Col. L. Lennox Irving of Renfrew Played Hockey With Dr. Young at College

C.P.R. Officials From Winnipeg Enjoy Day of Golf Here

Lt.-Colonel Lennox Irving of Renfrew, Ont., is looking over Victoria for the first time in his life, and he likes the experience.

He came in from California with Mrs. Irving today, and after placing his signature on the register at the Empress Hotel, set about locating the whereabouts of Dr. Henry E. Young, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health and schoolboy chum of Queen's College.

"If I don't happen to see him before I leave," said Lt.-Col. Irving to a Times representative in the hotel rounds, "just remind him of the time when Henry Eason Young and Lennox Irving played football and hockey together at Queen's College."

The Colonel was surprised to learn that Dr. Young's office in the Parliament Buildings was but a stone's throw from his hotel.

While indulging in reminiscences of school associations, the Colonel recalled Jack Kennedy of New Westminster, another friend of college days.

Lt.-Col. and Mrs. Irving have been spending a few months holiday in California, and will remain in the city a few days en route home.

"This is the first time that I have been in Victoria, and it appears to be a delightful place," concluded the Colonel.

C.P.R. OFFICIALS PLAY GOLF HERE
Making a short business trip here from Winnipeg, L. J. Baycroft, C.P.R. solicitor; W. B. Hall, superintendent of the Portage division, and Charles H. Fox, engineer of water supply for the C.P.R., with headquarters at the Manitoba capital, are to-day staying at the Empress Hotel. They left the hotel early this morning for a little golfing exercise, and put most of the day on the course.

MINES ATTRACT MORE INTEREST HERE THAN EVER

Flood of Capital Into B.C. Mineral Field Shown By New Incorporations

Unprecedented interest in British Columbia minerals is reflected in the formation of new mining companies as announced at the Parliament Buildings today. One mining company a day has been the rate of incorporation during the last week, the new concerns representing interests in almost all parts of the Province. A wide variety of minerals is covered by the list of mining concerns as issued at the Parliament Buildings this morning, along with other incorporations, as follows:

Pacific Coast Mine Operators Limited, $25,000, Vancouver, private.
Granite Estate No. 41 Limited, $100,000, Vancouver, private.
Glen Lee Yuen (1928) Limited, $10,000, Vancouver, private.

C. Alder and Maple Hardwood Company Limited, $25,000, Vancouver, private.
Vancouver Auto Drive Limited, $10,000, Vancouver, private.
Gold Coast Mines Limited (non-personal liability), $150,000, Vancouver, public.

Mayfair Butte Company Limited, $40,000, Vancouver, private.
Western Red Cedar Mills Limited, $200,000, Vancouver, private.
Beaver Brand Log Company Limited, $25,000, Vancouver, private.
The Euphrates Mining Company Limited (non-personal liability), $4,000, Nelson, public.

Metropolitan Laundry and Dry Cleaners Limited, $200,000, Vancouver, public.

SEVEN JAPANESE CHILDREN DROWN IN FRASER RIVER

Four Adult Japanese Rescue Five Young Ones After Gas-boat Accident

Vancouver, April 19.—The swirling, muddy waters of the North Arm of the Fraser River from Eburne to the Sandheads were dotted with Japanese fishing craft this morning, searching for out of service about a gasboat who were drowned last evening. Three bodies were recovered last yesterday.

The victims were: Six-year-old daughter of Toyo Koyanagi, five-year-old son of W. Nogoro, five-year-old son of M. Hamura, eight-year-old daughter of M. Hamura, four-year-old son of O. Koyanagi, ten-year-old daughter of Otama Harada, and five-year-old daughter of T. Koyanagi.

The death occurred this morning at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, of Mrs. Jane Waugh Fea, aged twenty-six years, born in Belfast, Ireland, and a resident of Victoria for the past twenty years, late resident 159 South Turner Street. The late Mr. Fea was a graduate from the school for blind, Halifax. He is survived by two brothers, R. L. Cox, and A. H. Cox of this city. A private funeral service will be held to-morrow afternoon, April 20, at 3 o'clock, from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Rev. Thomas Keyworth will officiate and the remains will be forwarded to Vancouver for cremation. It is requested that no flowers be sent.

POTTERY EXHIBIT ATTRACTS GUESTS

Women's Work Shows Signs of Great Artistic Promise

The exhibition of Victoria-made pottery, held yesterday afternoon and evening in the studio of Mrs. Margaret Grute, Broughton Street, attracted a large number of enthusiasts during the afternoon and evening, and many expressed the work for the first time, were fascinated with the delightful display.

A beautiful tea set, the work of Mrs. Grute, made to the order of the Hon. Walter C. Nichol, received a generous meed of praise. Adapted from the Indian design of the double-headed eagle, the pieces comprising the tea set are carried out in yellow and blue, the glazes lending an indefinable charm.

A jewel-box, the work of her daughter, Maureen Grute, is quite unique in its design, depicting a figure in a dancing figure, cleverly modeled, encircling the box and showing the embodiment of life, with two other little figures in repose upon the lid.

The pottery students exhibiting, and who work is deserving of special commendation and great praise were the following: Mrs. Edwards, who besides doing work excellent in design and coloring has combined the difficult task of preparing the clay for the use of the class; Mrs. MacMoran, Mrs. Hodson, Mrs. Squire, Mrs. Maynard, Mrs. Bolton, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Groves, Mrs. Downing and the Misses Laurison, McCorkill, Lillian Woodward, Marjorie, Macdonald and Davey. The objects exhibited comprised lamps, bowls, jars, vases, plates of various kinds, match-holders, candlesticks, desk sets, jardiniere, cups and saucers.

The death occurred yesterday afternoon on North Dairy Road of Mrs. Ann Gregory, a native of Menhett, England, and a resident of this city for twenty years, late resident of 325 Vancouver Street. She is survived by her husband, Mr. A. E. Gregory and one son, Frank W. Gregory. The remains are resting at the Sands Funeral Home, 1625 Quadra Street from where the funeral will take place on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. It is requested that the home be contacted. Interment will be made in Royal Oak Burial Park.

Eastern Capital Now Looks To B.C. As Best Undeveloped Field

Although British Columbia has produced minerals valued at more than a billion dollars, actual development of many promising mining properties throughout the Province has been hindered in the past owing to lack of sufficient capital, according to G. D. Tyson, head of the Victoria office of Miller, Court & Co.

"With mining stocks gripping the attention of the investing public as never before in the history of British Columbia, this situation has been completely changed to-day," Mr. Tyson says. "Renewed activity is noted in the mining stock market following the opening of the Vancouver and Victoria stock exchanges after the Easter holiday."

"With the financing of several favorably known mines scattered throughout the Province, the public has become aware of the tremendous ore bodies in British Columbia, and capital for further development of mining properties in the Province is forthcoming."

"Capital is pouring in from all sections of Canada and the United States."

Strict Government supervision exercised in the Province has resulted in the almost total elimination of spurious offerings and the subsequent building up of confidence on the part of the investor.

"S. W. Miller, of Miller, Court & Co., Limited, president of the Vancouver Stock Exchange, at present in Toronto, writes that Eastern capital is looking to British Columbia as the greatest undeveloped field in North America, outside capital appearing to be more alive to the present situation than local residents."

"Active development work is proceeding on the Blue Bird, Kootenay, Florence, Enterprise and Slocan-Rambler, and are expected to be shipping this season. The Whitewater, Lucky Jim and Ruth-Hope, situated in the rich Slocan area, are now shipping concentrates. During the summer new mills on the Noble Five and Cork Province will commence milling ore."

"With purchase of new properties by Premier and financing of several promising properties, a record season is promised for the important Portland Canal district.

"Much attention has been aroused by development of the Topley-Richfield property, which promises to be the centre of the third main camp in British Columbia before the end of the year. Diamond drilling is proceeding on the property to decide what capacity mill will be erected on the mine site. Several properties in the district will be developed this summer."

"New machinery to be used in a new hydro-electric plant for the White-water Mines has been purchased and will be delivered shortly, states W. H. Burgess, general manager of the big Slocan property, who is visiting Vancouver on a short business trip."

"As soon as weather conditions permit, construction of the hydro-electric plant will be started, states Mr. Burgess. This should be within thirty days, and it is planned to have the plant installed ready for use by the middle of July at the latest."

"Mr. Burgess, who is also manager of the Cork-Providence and Blue Bird properties, announces that the Cork-Providence hydro-electric plant is being rushed. The new dam will be finished in a week and the plant will be ready to supply power when the present mill is converted."

"The latter work, which consists of installing flotation process machinery, is under the supervision of W. L. Ziegler, mill expert. The Cork-Providence, says Mr. Burgess, will join the ranks of the producers by mid-summer."

"Snow is disappearing rapidly in the mountains, states the visitor, and men have already been engaged for work on the Blue Bird property. Arthur Lakes, M.E., consulting engineer, is expected to spend a week laying out this season's development programme, and when this is completed, activity on the Blue Bird property will be pronounced."

"Rapid production progress is being recorded by the Lucky Jim Lead & Zinc Co., Ltd., according to President H. H. Yull, who is visiting Vancouver on business. The mill commenced operations on March 15, handling 100 tons of ore a day. This was soon speeded up to 150 tons and now the plant is crushing 175 tons of ore daily."

"Colonel Yull states that the 200-ton mark will be reached early this summer and he expects to attain the capacity mark of 300 tons this year."

Society Has Adopted Many Rules For the Protection of a Child

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON
There has been much discussion over the "eugenics" case of the rich woman, aged forty-two, who, desiring the companionship of her own child, chose to have one, waiving the formality of marriage.

Without reference to the moral conventions of the matter, it is interesting to note the opinion of sociologists. Professor Roy Bowman, of Columbia University, says "She is a pioneer in changing the old, intolerant attitude of society toward the illegitimate child." But he adds "The only question is whether the child, in the absence of a father will enjoy a natural life, if it can mix freely with other children and escape being pointed at merely because its father is unknown."

Dr. Mary Halton, New York obstetrician, who has brought more than 2,000 babies into the world, says "Her act can be condemned only in so far as she may not be able to protect her child, for she is bringing it into a world that has many cruel and heartless ways of torturing illegitimate children."

There you have it! Society has adopted many rules for the relation of the sexes, and all these rules are for the protection of the child. Marriage, monogamy, the home. There is the child assured of security, care, and a normal upbringing. If the parents choose to deviate from this rigid code it is invariably the child who suffers. It is the child who suffers in divorce. The illegitimate child suffers still more. In lesser degree I cannot help thinking that the child in the home, where the mother is constantly away, must suffer more or less for lack of that mother's companionship, or at least part-time companionship.

Trial marriage, companionate marriage, free love all affect the child. And in this rather unusual case it seems to be agreed that it is the child, not the mother, who may later suffer from stigma.

BRITAIN HEADS SHIPBUILDERS

New York, April 18.—Construction of merchant ships throughout the world has been on the decrease since the first of the year, Lloyds Register of Shipping says. A decrease of nearly a quarter of a million tons has been noted in the quarter ending March 31. It is the first time a decrease has occurred since September, 1926. However, the latest quarter showed an increase of 1,043,000 tons over that 1926 period.

During the period United States building has dropped from eighth to tenth place, both Russia and Japan having passed this country. Great Britain and Ireland, at the top of the list, accounted for 1,440,842 tons.

San Francisco, April 18.—The steamer Santa Ana, latest addition to the inter-coastal fleet of the Panama Mail Line, will sail from New York for the Pacific Coast on June 23. William A. Young Jr., passenger traffic manager, returned here to-day. The addition of the vessel will give the line a fleet of four steamers in the trade, the other three being the Columbia, Venezuela and Ecuador.

Another steamer, the Santa Teresa, is due to fit into the schedule shortly after the Santa Ana, making five vessels in the service.

Crowded with a capacity passenger list that included wives of many naval officers, the Matson liner Mauna, Captain E. R. Johnson, sailed from here yesterday for Honolulu. The United States fleet passed out of the harbor a short time ahead of the Mauna, also bound for the Hawaiian Islands.

Henry Walters, for the past ten years assistant port engineer of the Matson Navigation Company, was named yesterday to succeed Port Engineer Joe Baker, who resigned, but he will remain on duty until the latter part of the month.

The Union Line steamer Makura, Captain J. F. Spring-Brown, sailed yesterday for Australia and New Zealand.

MARINE NOTES

The Chief Line freighter Ma. Dollar arrived at 6 a.m. to-day to take on lumber for the United Kingdom. She is berthed at Pier 2, Rithet Docks and will load about 1,000,000 feet.

The Canadian National Intercoastal freighter Canadiana, Seignior, making her first trip of the year in the service, arrived at 6 a.m. to-day from the East coast. She docked at Ogden Point piers to discharge 225 tons of general cargo, and sailed at 3 p.m. for Vancouver.

The Victoria Machinery Depot will do the overhauling of Gray to-morrow for overhauling.

WILL PROVIDE FAST GULF FERRY SERVICE DURING COMING SUMMER

SS. PRINCESS ELAINE

Princess Elaine and Motor Princess Will Maintain Gulf Run

New C.P.R. Ferry Steamer to Go Into Service May 5 Between Nanaimo and Vancouver; Motor Princess to Start Operation on May 23; Plan Big Welcome for Princess Elaine

SS. Princess Elaine, the new Canadian Pacific ferry steamer built last year in the Old Country for service in the Nanaimo-Vancouver run, will go into service on May 5, according to schedule released by the B.C. Coast Steamship Company to-day. The Elaine is now on her way up the Coast to Victoria from the Panama Canal and is expected here next Wednesday.

The Elaine will maintain a double daily service across the gulf, her schedule being similar to that now being maintained by the steamer Princess Patricia. She will leave Nanaimo at 7 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. and Vancouver at 10 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. She will make the trip between the two ports in 2 hours and 15 minutes running time.

The motorship Motor Princess, which with the Elaine will maintain the B.C. Coast Steamship Company's service between Nanaimo and Vancouver during the heavy tourist movement in the Summer, will go into service on May 23, according to the schedule. She will provide the same service as she did last year, leaving Vancouver at 7 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. and Nanaimo at 10:30 a.m. and 5:45 p.m. daily. The Motor Princess makes the trip between the two ports in three hours.

Preparations are now being made here and in Nanaimo to welcome the new Princess Elaine, when she arrives next week. It is expected a party may go out from Victoria to meet her in the Straits, while the Nanaimo city council is planning to show their appreciation of the Canadian Pacific Railway's continued interest and development in that city.

SEATTLE SHIPPING

Seattle, April 18.—The Tacoma Oriental Steamship Company yesterday completed arrangements with the port commission for the use of berthing facilities at the new terminal, the Western Stevedoring Company of Seattle to handle their longshore work. The first ship to dock at the new terminal will be the Cuprum, between May 5 and 10. The Cuprum, which is to be renamed the Shelton, is due to-day on her last voyage for the Admiral Ogilvie Line. She is to be turned over to the Tacoma company next week.

Completing her second round trip to the Dutch East Indies the Java Pacific Line motorship, Bratang, docked here yesterday with a cargo of coffee, tapioca, flour and pig iron.

C.N.R. OFFICIAL DIES IN CRASH

Vancouver, April 18.—J. P. Morkin, of Vancouver, timber inspector for the Canadian National Railway, was fatally injured yesterday afternoon, when his automobile failed to make a turn on a North Vancouver street, and crashed into a building. The machine was completely wrecked, Morkin suffering a crushed chest when he was jammed against the steering wheel. He died later in a hospital.

Carlton T. Nelson, manager of the Alberta Lumber Co., Vancouver, who was an occupant of the car, was severely injured about the head.

SENATE DEBATES NEW LEGATIONS

Work of Ministers and Cost of Establishments Discussed
Ottawa, April 18.—Canada's legations and diplomatic service were discussed in the Senate yesterday.

Hon. J. S. McLeannan, Conservative, Nova Scotia, drew the attention of the Senate to this service and asked of the Government the nature of appointment, the emolument and what provision was made for training candidates for the diplomatic corps.

Senator McLeannan said the Confederation celebration last year had made Ottawa a real capital. With the appointment of a United States Minister Canada had assumed certain national responsibilities. He did not believe a glorified commercial traveler was the highest form of representation needed by Canada in foreign countries.

STORM PROVES A JONAH TO THIS WHALE—Hundreds of curious folks went down to the sea in slivers when word came that a giant whale had been washed ashore during a storm off Wrightsville Beach, near Wilmington, the other day. Fishermen pronounced it a sperm whale and as soon as this picture had been taken they lost no time in dividing up the prize. It measured fifty-four feet in length and weighed nearly sixty tons.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and Slow Sammie

Copyright, 1928, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate
By HOWARD R. GARIN

The Lady Mouse Teacher, who had crept out of the room when Uncle Wiggily took charge of the class, now came in again just as the boy and girl animals were clapping their paws or beating their wings and making a great noise.

"Dear me, Uncle Wiggily," squeaked the Lady Mouse. "I thought you were coming to our school to make the pupils behave and be quicker in their lesson. But you have only made them more disorderly! Dear me!"

"Oh, not at all, Lady Mouse," exclaimed the rabbit gentleman with a twinkle of his pink nose. "The noise you hear is made by the pupils who are praising Susie Littletail for being so quick."

"What was she quick about?" asked the Lady Mouse Teacher.

"She was quick to guess the puzzle," and Uncle Wiggily pointed to the one he had drawn on the board. It was in last night's story, you know.

"Let me hear what Quick Susie said," begged Miss Mouse. And the little rabbit girl again gave her answers to the puzzle picture.

"A fish or a frog lives in the pond of water, a bird lives in the nest in the tree, a dog lives in the little kennel house and a horse lives in the other home, or barn."

"That is right, Susie," said Miss

Curly and Floppy recited grunting and squealing lessons.

Mouse. "I wish all my pupils were as quick as you."

"I think they will be from now on," said Uncle Wiggily. And he twinkled his pink nose upside down, which made the children laugh.

"Perhaps they'll be quick and study their lessons well if you stay here," squeaked Lady Mouse. So Uncle Wiggily sat on the platform with the teacher while she heard the boy and girl animals say their lessons.

For a time all went well. Curly and Floppy, the piggy boys, recited their grunting and squealing lessons just fine. Little and Alice, the bleatible, the ducks, were perfect in quacking, though when their brother, Jimmie, stood up to do his wing flapping lesson he made one mistake, but that wasn't much.

CUTICURA HEALS SKIN TROUBLE

Sore Eruptions Broke Out Over Face, Itched and Burned.

"My trouble began with little, sore eruptions which broke out all over my face. They itched and burned so that I always wanted to be scratching, and when I scratched them they got larger and then dried up. Some nights I could not sleep very well."

"I tried other remedies but they did not help me. I had the trouble over five weeks when I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and in two weeks I was healed."

(Signed) George W. Henschel, Box 55, Chipman, Alta., Oct. 8, 1927.

Daily use of Cuticura Soap, with touches of Cuticura Ointment as required, keeps the skin fresh, smooth and clear. Cuticura Talcum is an ideal toilet powder.

To-morrow's Horoscope

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1928

Conflicting planetary influences again are read in the day's horoscope.

Astrologers find the aspects disturbing to human serenity.

The early morning is conducive to discontent and the sort of nervousness that makes quarrels common.

Self-control should be practiced and the mind should be turned away from self.

Its worst forms is responsible for much of the discontent of the present.

Industry may be slightly affected by the fermenting of dissatisfaction through political agitation, astrologers declare.

Mars is in a place making for strife and criticism in which established laws are assailed.

The lunation of this date falls with violent fixed stars and seems to presage strange murders and atrocities.

Fires are foretold as the Spring advances and forests will be destroyed in many parts of the country.

Stringent enforcement of laws restricting careless smokers and campers is urged by astrologers.

The configuration most definitely indicates tremendous prosperity for the United States.

There is a sign read as vaguely suggesting for this country intense interest in armament.

The navy comes under scrutiny that may be unfavorable to those who advocate airships and modern policies.

Persons whose birthdate it is have a year of climax in which success is shown.

Children born on this day are likely to have supreme talents and may rise to extraordinary heights of success.

GYROS TO PRESENT
SNAPPY REVUE HERE
AT ROYAL THEATRE

"Let's Go," a modern up-to-the-minute revue, containing tuneful hits and witty conversation, will hold the boards at the Royal Victoria Theatre on May 3, 4 and 5. And judging by the large advance sale of tickets, the theatre will be packed nightly with the throng of Victoria and adjacent districts.

There will be songs and dances galore, a touch of drama, several comedy sketches and a host of other big features. The Victoria Gyros will produce the show. "Let's Go" is full of pep and music, humor and beauty.

Rehearsals for "Let's Go" are being held nightly. A strong cast has been chosen, and the performers are enthusiastic about the revue. The intangible Slick-Jones team of producers are directing "Let's Go" and are confident of making the Victoria production the most successful of their many successes.

Louise Glazen has been appointed by the Gyros as manager of the show, and she has on his energetic committee Gyros Sid Chiverrall, Bob Yates, Warrle Waterson, Arthur Kerr and Jay Rogson. Gyro Bob Yates is in charge of the sale of tickets, and the local club has been divided into eight ticket-selling teams.

AT THE THEATRES

NATALIE JOYCE IS STUDENT OF OLD
DRAMATIC PLAYS

Natalie Joyce, the charming little Southerner who plays opposite Tom Mix in "Daredevil's Reward," a Fox Films production, spends most of her spare time reading dramatic plays.

Miss Joyce hopes some day to be able to return to the legitimate stage, and every spare moment will find her poring over some old and dusty volume of a past master.

In "Daredevil's Reward," at the Columbia Theatre the dark-eyed girl gives a striking performance as the niece of the gang leader, who is torn between her duty to her uncle and her love for a Texas Ranger, played by Tom Mix.

Others in the cast include Lawford Davidson, Billy Blitcher, William Welsh and Harry Cording.

MYSTERY PLAY OF EAST TO BE GIVEN AT THE COLISEUM

Patrons of the Coliseum Theatre will be glad to know that Walker Whiteside has been booked for one performance on Monday evening, April 23, at which time he will present his master mystery play, "The Hindu." Walker Whiteside will be well remembered for his appearance in his recent success, "The Arabian," in which the star enacted the bandit, Abd el Rey.

"The Hindu," is a tried success, and in the several seasons this play has been on tour, it has been presented in practically every city of importance in the country, and acclaimed everywhere as a perfect evening's entertainment.

As usual, Mr. Whiteside has selected his supporting cast with great care, and among the better known players will be found Miss Franc Hale, Miss Helen Hardison, Miss Esther Belle, Paul McGee, Frank Henderson, M. Rale, William Dunne, Maurice Kuhlmann, Elwyn Eaton, Richard Ranier and M. de Silva.

ADMITS CLOTHES HAVE HAD MUCH TO DO WITH SUCCESS

Actresses and actors alike have always preferred to believe their success was due solely to histrionic ability. Now comes Adolphe Menjou, who willingly attributes a large part of his success to his clothes, and tells why.

Generally recognized as one of the best-dressed men on the screen, Menjou says that the player who fails to make a thorough and scientific study of his attire overlooks one of the most important bets of success.

"I get a complete wardrobe for every picture," says Menjou. "I have a tailor who is an artist in his profession. My shirts, collars and shoes are made to order. The less conspicuous things sometimes overlooked—neckties, socks, handkerchiefs, etc., are extremely important, and I select them as carefully as I do my suits."

Adolphe Menjou appears in "Blonde or Brunette," showing all week at the Coliseum Theatre.

ADOLPHE MENJOU
PLAYS ORCHESTRA
LEADER IN FILM

Music has come to be an accepted part of moving picture making, but Adolphe Menjou introduced something new on his set at the Paramount studio recently when he led a group of 200 extras in community singing. While a symphony orchestra played popular airs to the beat of Menjou's baton, the entire company joined in singing. At the same time twenty-four dancing girls danced to the music.

It was while electricians were preparing for a long shot of a theatre interior scene in Menjou's latest starring picture, "Serenade," now at the Capitol Theatre, that he took the dual role of orchestra and song leader. Menjou appears as an orchestra conductor in the picture and the 200 extras serve as a theatre audience. The dancing girls were on the stage.

At the Capitol Theatre this week on the stage are Sandy MacDowd and his eight Highland singing and piping lassies, in a Scottish song and musical presentation that has been acclaimed all over the country. Their programme includes several popular Scotch melodies and folk songs. They will appear twice daily.

RED HEADS ARE PREDOMINANT IN DOMINION FILM

Red hair is becoming the popular shade. Mary Agnes Hamilton, writing in the April Atlantic, calls New York "The Red-headed City," but, with the introduction of a duet of red-headed stars in Paramount's latest production, "Red Hair," at the Dominion Theatre to-day, the country has also turned to red hair.

Clara Bow, star of "Red Hair," insisted that her leading man for her new Elinor Glyn story should be of the red-headed variety, to harmonize with her own flaming tresses. Lane Chandler, Hollywood's first and only red-headed leading man, won the part and, with the technicolor effects in the early sequences, a flaming array was prepared for the screen.

Clara Bow is a firm believer in red hair as a beauty asset.

DR. LYLE TELFORD TO LECTURE THIS WEEK AT PLAYHOUSE

A film carrying an educational message is at the Playhouse Theatre, "Are You Fit to Marry?" A large crowd viewed the picture, which deals with an important subject.

"Are You Fit to Marry?" is to continue at the Playhouse for the rest of the week, with special matinee tomorrow for ladies only, at which time Dr. Lyle Telford will deliver a sex lecture on birth control and sex hygiene. All other performances being available to mixed crowds.

Children under sixteen are not admitted, as the picture is best suited for an adult matinee.

The film is an impressive and dignified screen presentation, carrying an interesting story as well as displaying

Dr. Telford will lecture on Friday and Saturday, with a special matinee Friday for ladies only.

REGINALD DENNY PLAYS AT VARIETY WITH MISS NIXON

William A. Selzer, the director, Reginald Denny, the star, Marion Nixon, the leading woman, and Ben Hendricks, who plays a prominent supporting role in "Rolling Home" at the Variety Theatre to-day, have all been together on three of Denny's last four pictures.

Selzer has directed them all. Miss Nixon has played opposite the popular faurce in "Where Was I?" "I'll Show You the Town," "What Happened to Jones," and "Rolling Home," while Hendricks has been in all but "Where Was I?"

In Selzer's corps of assistants, Harry Todd has turned the camera on all of Denny's recent pictures, and Nate Watt has been the assistant director, so altogether it makes quite a happy family gathering.

The supporting cast of "Rolling Home" includes E. J. Ratcliffe, Margaret Seddon, George Nicholas, George Marion, Anton Vavchka and several others.

"RULING OF CAESAR"
HISTORICAL OPERA
COMING TO COLISEUM

The historical opera that is coming to the Coliseum for a five-night run starting next Tuesday, is entitled "The Ruling of Caesar in Jerusalem." The story is founded on the history of Palestine in the early days of Christ when the Romans were in possession of the land. The opera is in three acts and the first act shows the coronation of the first act the Romans are attacking Jerusalem and destroying the holy temple. The second act shows Caesar's palace and the coronation of the Maccabean hero and his bride.
